CONFLICT OF INTEREST CODE
OF THE
SAN DIEGO UNIFIED PORT DISTRICT

The Political Reform Act, Government Code Sections 81000, et seq., requires State and local government agencies to adopt and promulgate Conflict of Interest Codes. The Fair Political Practices Commission has adopted 2 Cal. Adm. Code Section 18730, which contains the standard model Conflict of Interest Code, which can be incorporated by reference, and which may be amended by the Fair Political Practices Commission to conform to amendments in the Political Reform Act after public notice and hearings. Therefore, the provisions of 2 Cal. Adm. Code Section 18730 and any amendments to it duly adopted by the Fair Political Practices Commission along with the attached Appendix A, in which officials and employees are designated, and Appendix B and Appendix C, in which disclosure categories are set forth, are hereby incorporated by reference and constitute the Conflict of Interest Code of the San Diego Unified Port District (District). Designated employees listed in Appendix A of the Conflict of Interest Code of San Diego Unified Port District shall disclose those financial interests which are within the categories represented by the numbers following the listed position as described in Appendix B and Appendix C. Designated employees shall file Statements of Economic Interests pursuant to 2 Cal. Adm. Code Section 18730 and this Code.

Individuals holding designated positions shall file their statements of economic interests (statements) with the Office of the District Clerk (District Clerk), which will make the statements available for public inspection and reproduction in accordance with Government Code Section 81008. Upon receipt of the statements for the Members of the Board of Port Commissioners, the District Clerk shall make and retain copies and forward the originals to the Clerk of the San Diego County Board of Supervisors in accordance with Government Code Section 87500. All other statements will be retained by the District Clerk.

Consultant Disclosure

Definition: Fair Political Practices Commission regulation [2 Cal. Code of Regs. Section 18700] defines "consultant" as an individual who, pursuant to a contract with a state or local governmental agency:

(a) Makes a governmental decision whether to:

- (1) Approve a rate, rule or regulation;
- (2) Adopt or enforce a law;
- (3) Issue, deny, suspend, or revoke a permit, license, application, certificate, approval, order, or similar authorization or entitlement;
- (4) Authorize the agency to enter into, modify, or renew a contract provided it is the type of contract which requires agency approval;
- (5) Grant agency approval to a contract which requires agency approval and in which the agency is a party or to the specifications for such a contract;
- (6) Grant agency approval to a plan, design, report, study, or similar item;
- (7) Adopt, or grant agency approval of, policies, standards, or guidelines for the agency, or for any subdivision of the agency; or

(b) Serves in an ongoing staff capacity with the agency and in that capacity performs the same or substantially all the same duties for the agency that would otherwise be performed by an individual holding a position specified in the agency's local conflict of interest code.

"Consultant" does not serve in an ongoing staff capacity when:

- (1) Conducting research and arriving at conclusions with respect to his or her rendition of information, advice, recommendation or counsel independent of the control and direction of the agency or of any agency official, other than normal contract monitoring; and
- (2) He or she possesses no authority with respect to any agency decision beyond the rendition of information, advice, recommendation or counsel and only provides services on a sporadic basis.

Disclosure requirements for Sections (a) & (b) above:

Section (a): Investments and business positions in business entities and sources of income, which provide the type of services utilized by the agency.

Section (b): Consultants who serve in a staff capacity shall disclose those financial interests listed in the assigned disclosure category for the corresponding staff position listed in Appendix A.

Appendix C

Consultant Disclosure

The Executive Director may determine in writing that a particular consultant, although a "designated position", is hired to perform a range of duties that is limited in scope and thus is not required to comply fully with the disclosure requirements described in this section. Such determination shall include a description of the consultant's duties and, based upon that description, a statement of the extent of disclosure requirements. The Executive Director's determination is a public record and shall be retained for public inspection in the same manner and location as this conflict of interest code.
