Lending a Hand

Since 1956

What is CECO?

Since its inception in 1956, the San Diego County Employees' Charitable Organization (CECO) has been the charitable arm of the County of San Diego, dedicating its efforts to encouraging interest in and support for the diverse health, recreation and human care needs in the local community.

CECO is managed by volunteers and funded by the generosity of County of San Diego employees and retirees. 100% of donations to CECO are distributed to the community by way of grants to local non-profit organizations and employees in crisis.

Benefits

1. Support diverse local non-profit programs.
2. Support County employees & retirees in crisis.
3. Donation is tax deductible, if itemizing return.

Supporting Non-Profit Programs

Through the CECO Grant Allocation program, eligible non-profit organizations may apply for one-time funding of tangible item(s) that will enhance existing programs and/or develop new program(s) addressing diverse needs of the community. A group of CECO volunteers are tasked with assessment of all applications received and recommending selection of grant recipients to the CECO Board of Directors for approval. See www.sdceco.org for list of past recipients.

Supporting County Employees & Retirees

Employees and retirees who find themselves in a one-time crisis may apply for one-time financial assistance. See www.sdceco.org for eligibility requirements and application form.
