CHIEF, DEPARTMENTAL OPERATIONS | COUNTY OF SAN DIEGO

REGISTRAR OF VOTERS | PRECINCT SERVICES DIVISION

The County of San Diego, Registrar of Voters (ROV) invites résumés from qualified candidates for Chief, Departmental Operations to fill a vacancy in the Precinct Services Division.

The Chief, Departmental Operations is an unclassified management position reporting directly to executive management and oversees a major functional area or several small programs including creating program policy and supervision of staff. This position provides leadership and oversight over the functions and activities of the Department's Precinct Services Division.

THE POSITION: The primary responsibilities are to direct precinct planning; securing poll facilities; survey and retrofit polls to meet accessibility requirements; print requests; GIS/cartographic functions; oversee candidate filing and candidate services, manage campaign finance disclosure reporting and oversee the overall direction of the language services program. The Chief, Departmental Operations provides leadership, supervision, and management of staff responsible for precinct service activities. These responsibilities are accomplished through a balanced, yet continually shifting combination of in-house resources.

THE IDEAL CANDIDATE: The ideal candidate will be a decision-maker who is dedicated to the highest ethical standards, ensure responsible stewardship of all that is entrusted to the Department, and be committed to achieving excellence. His or her professional history will demonstrate the following leadership competencies, attributes and experience:

- Election operation experience including familiarity with election technologies, voting procedures and election laws. Nine years of election experience such as supervising the operations of a section responsible for carrying out process and procedures related to the administration of an election is highly desirable
- Program management including budget development, supervision, program development and evaluation, and policy development
- Strong consensus-building skills while developing and maintaining long-term relationships. Influence and persuasion skills; developing interpersonal relationships with a wide range of individuals while balancing public policy and a wide range of organizational initiatives

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: Qualified candidates will possess a bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university, or a certified equivalency for foreign studies, AND five years of experience that demonstrate the ability to perform the essential functions of the classification. Experience must have included two years of management or supervision; OR a combination of experience and/or education stated above. Note: A master's degree or higher degree may substitute for a total of one year experience as indicated, college coursework must demonstrate progress toward a degree and may be substituted on a year-for-year basis. Qualifying experience will include CAO Staff Officer or Project Manager experience in the County of San Diego that involves leading projects.

COMPENSATION: The anticipated hiring range upon appointment for this position will be $95,000 to $110,000. Placement within this range is dependent upon the qualifications of the successful candidate. Annual salary reviews are performance-based and goal-oriented.

REGISTRAR OF VOTERS

The Department's mission is to conduct voter registration and voting processes with the highest level of professional election standards, including accountability, security and integrity, thereby earning and maintaining public confidence in the electoral process.

The Registrar of Voters (ROV) is entrusted with providing the means for all eligible citizens of San Diego County to exercise their right to actively participate in the democratic process. The Department works to ensure widespread, ongoing opportunities to register and vote in fair and accurate elections for all Federal, State and local offices and measures. The ROV is also responsible for providing access to the information needed for citizens to engage in the initiative, referendum and recall petition processes.

To ensure these critical services are provided, the ROV has 66 full-time permanent staff and a budget of $21.2 million. Depending on type and complexity of the election process, the Department hires hundreds of temporary election and poll workers.

For additional information, please review the Registrar of Voters website. The ROV is part of the Community Services Group.
