

Paint Your Photo Stream Green – Shared memories could earn you a County Parks gift pack!

Help us turn Black Friday Green with by sharing your favorite park memories – and by creating new ones. The County of San Diego Department of Parks and Recreation (DPR) is running two photo contests to encourage people to #optoutside this holiday season, and to show us what it means to spend quality time outdoors.

Facebook Photo Contest

Whatever did you do BEFORE Black Friday?

Share a memory from a County park for a chance to win a gift pack, and to be featured on County Parks' Facebook and Pinterest pages.

Send pics to jessica.geiszler@sdcounty.ca.gov by Wednesday, Nov. 25. Along with your photo, please include your first and last name, the year in which the photo was taken, the park location, and why the memory is special to you.

Twitter Photo Contest

Boycott shopping for a day... It's Green Friday!

Did you forgo the long lines, congested parking lots and hyped buy-one-get-one offers of Black Friday for some quality family time in a County park? We'd love to hear your Green Friday stories!

Spend Friday, Nov. 27 outside, in a County Park. Snap a selfie and post it to Twitter using our official Green Friday hashtag – #UpsideofOutside – for a chance to win a special gift pack!

Park rangers will pick their favorite photos in both contests. Winners will be notified via email or messenger, and announced on sdparks.org.

With more than 350 miles of multi-use trails, along with dozens of unique picnic locations, County parks, preserves and historic sites offer a ready escape from the hustle and bustle of daily life – and the perfect place to celebrate Green Friday on Friday, Nov. 27.
