

Recently the "Groves" site (pictured left) was identified as a possible Tier A site. If acquired by the County of San Diego, a portion of the site will be developed as a park and a portion will be protected as preservation land.

The above image represents the current Core Study Area Boundary, as of November 30, 2007.