

3.0 ENVIRONMENTAL EFFECTS FOUND NOT TO BE SIGNIFICANT

3.1 Effects Found Not Significant as Part of the EIR Process

The following environmental issue areas were determined to be potentially significant during the Environmental Initial Study or Notice of Preparation process, but were concluded not to be significant after further analysis undertaken as part of this document:

- Aesthetics (Section 3.1.1)
- Air Quality and Global Climate Change (Section 3.1.2)
- Biological Resources (Section 3.1.3)
- Hazards, Hazardous Materials and Fire Safety (Section 3.1.4)
- Hydrology and Water Quality (Section 3.1.5)
- Land Use/Planning/Community Character (Section 3.1.6)
- Noise (Section 3.1.7)
- Water Supply (Section 3.1.8)

This page intentionally left blank.