

APPENDIX B

PHOTOGRAPHS

Photograph 1: Southeast view of Property from northwest end.

Photograph 2: Southeast view from knoll above former cattle feeding area and future proposed school site. A water tank is visible on the left side of the photograph. Photograph 3: Closer view of water tank.

Photograph 4: West view of Property from knoll above former cattle feeding area. An uncapped water well is in right corner of the photograph (see Photograph 5).

Photograph 5: Uncapped water well on knoll above cattle feeding station. Photograph 6: Water tank and feeding station in cattle feeding area. A roof sample from the feed station structures did not contain asbestos.

Photograph 7: North view of the Property from approximately the west Property line near the north end of the north arm of Lower Otay Reservoir.

Photograph 8: South view of the drainage south of the pond in the middle of the south end of the Property.

Photograph 9: North view of the central part of the Property north of the pond in the middle of the south end of the Property.

Photograph 10: West view of the Property from the approximately the middle of the Property.

Photograph 11: West view of the Property from a vantage point that is above the 80 acre area which is not part of the Property.

Photograph 12: East view of the southeast end of the Property. Otay Lakes Road appears on the right side of the photograph.

Photograph 13: Jamul Creek on the adjoining east site fronting Otay Lakes Road. The Property is behind the creek in this photograph.

Photograph 14: East view of John Nichols Field on south adjoining site and an east view of the Property on the right side of Otay Lakes Road.

Photograph 15: Typical view of debris dumped illegally on the west side of the in the interior of the Property. Non hazardous construction debris was observed in this debris pile area.

Photograph 16: Another view of debris left on the Property near the access gate to the cattle feed area. Hazardous materials were not observed in the debris pile.