

Alpine Woman's Club

The Alpine Woman's Club was originally the Town Hall of Alpine and was built in 1899 with money raised by a group of townspeople and matched by Benjamin R. Arnold. Building ownership was transferred to the Alpine Woman's Club in 1932 and has been owned and maintained by the Club since.