Hello Rob,

The Newberry One Power Plant has been in commercial operation since last week. Soitec is going to have an open house and will be taking folks up there some time in January. Date to be announced. Is there any other questions?

Rob,

I don't understand the question? Are you asking the operational status of the plant?

Pat,

Please let me know what the status of the Newberry project is with regard to any mechanical or grid interface issues, so that I can respond to a question from Donna Tisdale.

Thanks,
