COUNTY SEEKS INPUT ON LOCATIONS FOR MENTAL HEALTH SERVICE FACILITIES

The County of San Diego Health and Human Services Agency (HHSA) will hold four community forums to gather input from the public and the mental health community on possible locations for mental health service facilities.

The facilities will be used to provide mental health services or will serve as administrative offices. Funding for the services and facilities comes from the Mental Health Services Act, approved by California voters in 2004.

The forums will take place on the following dates at the locations below:
