

José Luis Rodriguez Mural Unveiling & Teen Summer Reading Kickoff

Friday, June 14 @ 12 p.m.

Free Lunches for Kids & Teens ▪ Special Guests
Live Entertainment ▪ Prize Drawing

The children's area of the new Lincoln Acres Library is named the Jose Luis Rodriguez Family Discovery Center in honor of a library staff member who was murdered just minutes before his eighteenth birthday. Rodriguez was passionate about literacy and providing library services for children. The new mural in the children's area depicts the sights and sounds of the Lincoln Acres community, while a boy holding his sister's hand represents Rodriguez. The mural was created by The Rainforest Art Project.
