

VOLUNTEER
@ my San Diego
County Library

READ
@ my San Diego
County Library

WORK
@ my San Diego
County Library

HAVE FUN
@ my San Diego
County Library

Valeria is having fun learning at San Diego County Library with her mom, Fabiola.

There are lots of ways to learn at San Diego County Library:

- Go to a Career Café and get ready to work
- Attend a HOME Clinic to learn about foreclosure prevention
- Join an ESL Café to develop your English skills
- Sign up for a Parent education program

www.sdcl.org where books are just the beginning

Letha is one of the people working for you at San Diego County Library.

We are here to help you at San Diego County Library.

Help us celebrate library workers on National Library Workers Day, Tuesday, April 13.

Go to www.sdcl.org and tell us about your favorite library worker.

www.sdcl.org where books are just the beginning

Julian loves books and reading at the San Diego County Library.

There are lots of ways to enjoy reading at San Diego County Library:

- Check out a book: 8 million books were checked out last year
- Listen to a book: When you visit story time or download an audio book for free at our web site
- Share a book: Join a book discussion group
- Join our Summer Reading Program starting June 14, 2010

www.sdcl.org where books are just the beginning

Mellonie volunteers as a literacy tutor at San Diego County Library.

There are lots of ways to support San Diego County Library:

- Be a literacy tutor
- Join the Friends of the Library
- Help at any Friends of the Library book stores
- Give time and talent at a branch library

Visit any San Diego County Library to find out more information.

www.sdcl.org where books are just the beginning

