

Judith Josephson loves to dig into the past and is fascinated by people's lives. A former teacher, Judith Josephson has written stories, columns, and articles for children. Her award-winning biographies and history books include both nonfiction and fiction for children. She was interviewed on A & E Biography and Discovery television programs about her Allan Pinkerton biography. Her Jesse Owens biography was nominated for an NAACP Image Award. A chapter of her Mother Jones biography is included in an 8th grade reading text, and that book was voted one of the Sixty Best Books of 1997 by School Library Journal. Her most recent biographies from Lerner Publications are Louis Armstrong and Nelson Mandela. She has received San Diego Book Awards for Umbrellas (a whimsical jaunt through the history of the umbrella), Growing up in World War Two (part of a childhood history series), and Nitty-Gritty Grammar: A Not-So-Serious Guide to Clear Communication (illustrated with cartoons) (www.grammarpatrol.com), and Armando and the Blue Tarp School, the latter two co-written with Edith Fine (www.edithfine.com). Armando and the Blue Tarp School has been nominated for a 2009-2010 California Young Reader medal.