

Jim Pascoe is the author of 13 books, including murder mysteries, Disney novelizations, graphic novels featuring Buffy the Vampire Slayer and Hellboy, and the hit manga series UNDERTOWN, the first volume of which was serialized in the Sunday Comics Section of 50 newspapers worldwide. His work creating the interactive TV launch event JETIX CARDS LIVE! won a 2004 Emmy Award. His noir cred was established with the cult publishing company UglyTown, which he co-founded and co-ran for almost a decade. His noir shot "The Kidnapper Bell" appears in the best-selling LOS ANGELES NOIR. "Paper," another short in the same vein, will appear in FLORIDA HEAT WAVE, coming 2010.