Free Lunch at the Library

Kids ages 0-18 will be provided with a nutritious lunch while school is out this summer. Meals are free, but must be consumed on site.

*Tuesday-Thursdays, 11:30am-12:30pm
June 16-August 7*

English Conversation Hour

Students of English can practice their language skills with volunteers and English tutors during our weekly conversation café.

Every Tuesday, 6:00pm

NEW Summer Chess Camp

Come learn the basics of this fascinating game, as well as some serious tactics and strategy. All ages and skill levels are welcome and basic instruction is available.

Tuesdays, June 16-August 4, at 1:00pm

NEW Teen Writing Workshop

Teens can explore writing poetry, short stories and more with help from simple and fun exercises. Notebooks, pencils and everything you need will be provided. We will end the summer with a teen writing contest to win a tablet computer.

Fridays, June 19-August 7, 2:00pm

Computer Basics for Seniors

Classes will teach computer basics for the absolute beginner, including email, web browsing, and saving files. Laptops will be available but you may feel free to bring your own.

Fridays, June 5 and June 12, 2:00pm

Your library offers hundreds of free events and classes.

Find them at www.sdcl.org

E-Reader Workshops

Learn how to check out library books for free on your e-reader. Please bring your e-reader device when you come. Appointments are also available upon request.

Saturday, June 13, 3:00pm

Wednesday Night Book Club

This long standing book club meets the fourth Wednesday of each month. This month's title to be announced.

Wednesday, June 24, 5:45pm

Summer Reading Kickoff with Magician Joe Mystic

Come kick off summer reading with an awesome magic show for all ages. Sign up, get your reading logs, and get started reading for prizes.

Thursday, June 19, 3:30pm

Older Americans' Book Club

Celebrate Older Americans Month (a bit late) with a library book club discussion. We will be reading and discussing Still Alice, the popular novel recently made into an Oscar-winning film.

Saturday, June 20, 4:00pm

Jewelry Craft with Denise Sarram

Kids of all ages can design and bead their own bracelets and earrings. Make your own jewelry in this fun craft or make a gift.

Thursday, June 25, 1:00pm

Fine Free Friday

Bring in your late items (books, movies, or music) and we will forgive up to one month of late fines. Items returned between closing on February 26 to opening on February 28 will qualify.

Friday, June 26, all day
