Calling all readers! The San Diego County Library is proud to participate in not one, but two community reading projects!

California Reads: The War Comes Home

invites Californians from all walks of life to read What It Is Like To Go To War by Karl Malantes. San Diego County libraries will be holding many programs and book discussions. Check them out at www.sdcl.org/careads.

Seniors & Veterans Resource Table

Who: Active and retired military members & families as well as those age 50 and older.
When: Wednesday October 1st from 10am-12pm
Why: Anyone looking for information regarding services available to military and/or seniors in the San Diego area. Community member Jerry Barber will be happy to assist you with your needs.

One Book One San Diego

is a joint effort with PBS, San Diego City libraries, and San Diego County libraries to foster community discussion. This year's selection is Monstress by Lysley Tenorio. His book shares the story of when Filipino traditions meet California modernity. Learn more about the programs the county libraries are offering at <http://www.sdcl.org/one-book.html>.

Friends of the Library Bookstore

Your donations help. Bookstore is open library hours. Look for our monthly blowout sales!

Your library offers hundreds of free events and classes. Find them at www.sdcl.org. You can also find us on Facebook (casadeorobranch) or on Twitter (@CasadeOro).
