Books & Brunch - Meet the Author: Susan Carol McCarthy – Tuesday, June 28th at 11:30am

Join us for an author visit with Susan Carol McCarthy. Susan Carol McCarthy was born and raised in the rural grove lands of pre-Disney central Florida. McCarthy married a Californian and settled in San Diego as a full-time freelancer. In 1991, McCarthy's writing life took a dramatic turn. A batch of news clippings from the Orlando Sentinel and a startling letter from her father detailed a series of shocking race crimes that occurred throughout Florida in 1951-1952. (Records of an FBI investigation, a Grand Jury hearing, and KKK indictments had been sealed for 40 years.) Her father's account of his daring cooperation with the FBI became the basis for McCarthy's award-winning debut novel, LAY THAT TRUMPET IN OUR HANDS. Her second novel, TRUE FIRES, was inspired by true events that occurred in Lake County, Florida in 1954.
