Wildcat Canyon Road - Centerline Enhancements to Reduce Cross Over Collisions

Section F

Project Description

Enhance the centerline by installing yellow ceramic pavement markers along the centerline between the existing reflectorized pavement markers. These ceramic markers will be placed 4 feet apart. The design is included in the approved 2010 standard plans prepared by the California Department of Transportation.

Impacts

Most of the traffic traveling on Wildcat Canyon Road is related to the Barona Casino operation. South of the Casino, traffic has increased from approximately 6,400 vehicles per day in the early 1990's to 17,000 vehicles per day today. North of the Casino, traffic on the segment from the Barona Casino Entrance to San Vicente Road has increased from approximately 3,800 vehicles per day in the early 1990's to 6,500 vehicles per day.

County staff has reviewed documented motor vehicle collisions for the most recent five year reporting period on this winding two-lane mountainous road with limited shoulders. As indicated in the table below, certain collision types were significantly higher than the statewide averages for roadways with similar characteristics. These collisions result in significant property damage and or injury to motorists.

Collision Type	Expected Statewide Rate	Wildcat Canyon Rd Rate
Hit Object	22%	50%
Overtaken	5%	15%
Head-On	1%	10%

Mitigation

To help reduce the collision type severity and to provide more positive guidance to motorists along this road, the County of San Diego proposes to enhance the existing on-pavement centerline for the entire stretch of Wildcat Canyon Road from Ashwood Street/Willow Road to San Vicente Road. The existing centerline is a 4 inch painted double yellow centerline with yellow reflectorized raised pavement markers straddling the centerline and spaced every 24 feet. This proposal would enhance the centerline treatment by including yellow ceramic pavement markers along the centerline between the existing reflectorized pavement markers. These ceramic markers will be placed 4 feet apart. The design is included in the approved 2010 standard plans prepared by the California Department of Transportation.

The installation of nearly 30,000 supplemental yellow ceramic markers provides enhanced visual and audible centerline tracking cues to motorists and should reduce the higher-than-average severe collision types. Reduction in high severity collision types should result in a decreased response and service cost to local law enforcement first responders as well as local fire and emergency medical service providers. Traffic congestion that results from accidents will also be reduced. The net result is an increase in overall public health and safety along this corridor.

Section M

The County of San Diego will provide notice to the motoring public through signage stating that the County of San Diego has received funding from the Indian Gaming Special Distribution Fund and the Barona Valley Ranch Resort & Casino.
