

Call for Entries

2021 Kids' Calendar Contest

Students submit your artwork by November 20, 2020

Attention Students of
San Diego County
Submit your artwork today!

The San Diego County Air Pollution Control District is having an open call for entries into the annual Kids' Calendar Contest. If you live in San Diego County and are in Kindergarten through 12th grade we want your original artwork depicting clean air messages and ways to reduce air pollution. Calendar contest winners will have their artwork featured in the 2021 calendar. There will be thirteen (13) calendar contest winners (1 for the calendar cover and 1 for each month). All entries will be featured in a gallery on the APCD website.

So get creative with your art supplies and enter the contest today!

The contest begins immediately.
