Supervisor, District 3
San Diego County Board of Supervisors

Organization	Purpose	District 3
Alliance for Quality Education	D6 Night Market now in its 4th year offers a free-family oriented neighborhoods' spirits celebration highlighting local food & merchandise vendors, local entertainers & cultural groups, promoting civic engagement & economic development opportunity for small business.	$7,500
Alpha Project for the Homeless	Operated in every district of the County, Alpha's Programs support tourism and economic development year-round through its homeless outreach and employment programs. Professional and identifiable apparel (shirts, hats, etc.) and supplies are critical to our services. The Food Program promotes the economy, creates jobs, and a better quality of life by offering job training to homeless individuals while providing over 500 meals a day for the City of San Diego's Bridge Shelter, Cortez Hill Family Shelter & County-wide outreach.	$10,000
Alzheimer's San Diego	Free 15-minute appointments are a helpful start for anyone who is worried about memory loss, or would like to establish a baseline to detect future changes. Screenings will also connect potential volunteers with local Alzheimer's clinical trials. Free in-home respite to families caring for a person with dementia. Families are matched with a trained Companion Volunteer to provide weekly social visits, allowing caregivers to take a much-needed break. A research forum that brings together leading scientists, geneticists and physicians to share the latest in Alzheimer's and dementia research. This free event provides a rare opportunity for all San Diegans to talk with world-class experts working to find a cure. Interactive classes held at locations throughout San Diego County. Attendees will learn about topics such as brain health, caregiving skills, what to expect as dementia progresses and the latest on Alzheimer's research. Activities for individuals with dementia and their families to encourage staying active, being social and connecting with others, while also teaching caregivers techniques that can be used at home. Programs include art, music, physical exercises and social outings.	$25,000

American Combat Veterans of War	$10.00 a week for each indigent veteran and Behavioral Housing inmate for phone cards, stamps to address legal, familial, work. Based on 2018 numbers, 70,200 is needed to adequately fund just this need (based on 135 incarcerated veterans x $10 per week x 52). Funding for this activity will include; clothing, transportation costs, temporary short-term housing costs until more permanent arrangements are finalized, documents i.e. birth certificates, DD214, drivers license, auto impound fees, etc. needed to re-enter society. Follow up includes weekly attendance at our signature "Safe Warrior Outreach" program meetings where the warrior, in a safe non-judgmental environment, can explore options to address emotional, familial, trauma, legal etc. with solutions, assistance, or referrals.	$10,000
Arthatch	ArtHatch hosts 12 opening receptions per year, each held on the second Saturday of the month. Music by local, emerging musicians adds to the ambiance. 8x5 full color, dual side promotional cards are printed monthly. These are distributed throughout the County as well as on social media. They include 6 local sponsor logos, including the County of San Diego's logo.	$1,000
Asian & Pacific American Coalition San Diego	APAC believes that increasing voter participation is the most straightforward way to improve democracy & strives to encourage its communities to vote. The program includes door-to-door canvassing, face-to-face delivery of the GOTV message, robo-calls, & eblasts. APAC provides education on civics to the Asian Community. APAC will link communities by recognizing naturalized U.S. citizens, who, through civic participation & responsible citizenship, have demonstrated commitment to the U.S. & the common values that unite us. Coordinates Annual Award for San Diego API Outstanding Student. Its purpose is to recognize those high school students who have demonstrated willingness and made effort in civic engagement and actively participated in community outreach programs.	$5,000
Asian Business Association, San Diego	Taste of Asia is an ABA event that will increase tourism and ancillary services in the Kearny Mesa region. Taste of Asia is an evening event that will bring people from throughout San	$7,500

	Diego and Southern California to a festive foodie event to taste exquisite San Diego Asian cuisine. ABA's Annual Gala is where business meets culture - business between members as well as members and sponsoring organizations. Individuals and local businesses are recognized for their generous contributions to the business fabric of San Diego. ABA's Business Development Resource Center (BDRC) will offer information and technical assistance in the form of workshop/seminars to enable small business and aspiring entrepreneurs to participate fully in San Diego's economic development. ABA's Lunar New Year is one of the organization's signature networking events. The event blends the rich Asian heritage of San Diego with a casual atmosphere in which attendees can comfortably engage in meaningful business conversations and foster relationships. ABA office expenses including purchase of general office supplies and website operations and printing. The funds will be used to cover their hard costs.
Asian Culture and Media Alliance, Inc.	The TAKE ONE Media Internship program provides our under-served Asian & Pacific American youths with opportunities to learn employable skills in the media arts industry, as well as foster personal development, cultural literacy and community activism.	$2,500
