

The background of the entire slide is a close-up photograph of several woven baskets. The baskets are made of natural fibers and are decorated with vibrant, multi-colored horizontal stripes in shades of red, orange, yellow, green, blue, and purple. Some baskets have thick, braided handles in similar color schemes. The lighting is bright, highlighting the texture of the weaving.

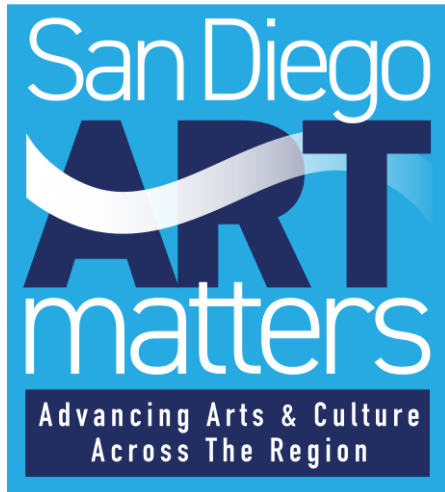

Creative Conversations 2026: The Arts in Rural and Unincorporated San Diego County

Why Rural Communities Matter

It's large part of San Diego and people are moving there

Affordability and “room for a better quality of life” top motivators for moving from urban to rural areas:

- Sense of Belonging and Community
- Connection to Nature and Place
- Lower Cost of Living and Space
- Safety, Family and Quality of Life
- Opportunity for Meaningful Contribution
- Escaping Urban Challenges – Coming Home to something Meaningful

About Creative Conversations: 2025

What we Heard:

People choose a rural life – not just for what it lacks - but what it offers, BUT...

Rural communities often lack the vibrant arts and culture scene urban areas offer – and rural residents want more. Rural communities are underserved by San Diego's arts and culture sector.

How World Café Works

Creative Conversations: 2026

What's Ahead?

Using World Café method, answer the following questions:

- What's working now?
- Where are there gaps?
- What don't we want?
- What do we want more of?

ENVISION THE FUTURE

What we hope to Learn

- How can the arts attract more visitors?
- How can the arts expand employment and economic development?
- How can the arts promote health and well-being, particularly with youth?
- How can the arts preserve heritage while fostering new collaborations and creative expression?
