

Citizens' Law Enforcement Review Board Members

Board Chair - Eileen J. Delaney

Mrs. Delaney is President of DAC1 Companies. Along with a business background, she also has extensive knowledge in planning, development, and land use. She has served as an elected member of the Fallbrook Planning Group since 1999 and has chaired the Fallbrook Design Review Board since 2000. She was a member of the first San Diego County District Attorney's Citizens Academy in 2006, in partnership with the San Diego County Sheriff's Department. Mrs. Delaney has been appointed to numerous County Boards and Committees and has also served on the Board of Directors of many non-profit organizations. She has been the recipient of honors and awards including California State Senate Woman of the Year, Boys & Girls Club Champion of Youth, Chamber of Commerce Community Champion, Fallbrook Citizen of the Year and has had the distinct honor of being an Olympic Torch Bearer for the 2002 Olympics. Mrs. Delaney is dedicated to helping improve the lives of others and to make San Diego County a better and safer place to live and visit.

Vice Chair - MaryAnne Pintar

Ms. Pintar has more than 20 years of experience in San Diego government and politics. She began her political career in San Diego serving as then-San Diego Mayor Susan Golding's press secretary in the 1990s, eventually serving as her communications director and chief of staff. More recently, she has served for 9 years as Congressman Scott Peters' chief of staff. In the early 2000s, Pintar had her own public affairs and communications sole proprietorship and was frequently hired by organizations in need of her crisis communications skills. Prior to this, she worked at two of San Diego's leading public affairs firms. She is a former City of San Diego Library Commissioner, formerly served on the La Jolla YMCA Board of Directors, and was Parent-Teacher President Group President at All Hallows Academy. In 2018, San Diego Moxie Theater named her one of their Moxie Awards given to Women of San Diego with Grit and Determination, and in 2004 she was named one of San Diego Business Journal's 40 Under 40 to watch. She has a bachelor's degree and master's degree from San Diego State University, and she and her husband have three children.

Citizens' Law Enforcement Review Board Members

Secretary - Pastor Robert L. Spriggs Jr.

Pastor Robert L. Spriggs, Jr. is a native of San Diego, California born to the late Pastor Robert Spriggs, Sr. and Evangelist Dorothy Spriggs. Pastor Spriggs began his life of ministry when he was 15 years old preaching his 1st sermon at his father's church, Deliverance Church of God in Christ located in San Diego, California. In 1998 during the funeral service of his father, Bishop George D. McKinney, General Board Member of the Church of God in Christ, Inc. installed him as pastor of The Deliverance Church of God in Christ. In 2001 Pastor Spriggs was ordained by Bishop McKinney. Pastor Spriggs founded the Temple of Praise & Deliverance Center on January 3, 2006, in the home of a parishioner in obedience to God. The ministry thrived on helping people from all walks of life no matter their financial status, ethnicity, or style of worship. In 2019 Pastor Spriggs closed his church doors and joined Greater Life Church of San Diego, California under the leadership of Lead Servant/ Pastor Nate Stewart where he serves as an Associate Pastor overseeing the Safety & Security of the church. Pastor Spriggs occupies a Bachelor's Degree in Human Development and a Master's Degree in Leadership from San Diego Christian College. He has over 37 years of experience working with youth in the San Diego Unified School District, serving in the positions of Teachers Aide, African- American Male Mentor, Instructional Aide, Campus Security Assistant, & Co-Founder of Brothers of Excellence (Men of Color Mentorship Program). He currently works for N.C.R.C. which is an acronym for National Conflict Resolution Center as a Restorative Justice Practices School Specialist. He has served in his community of Southeast San Diego over 25 years as a highly sought-after mentor/teacher. He also serves the County of San Diego as the Secretary for C.L.E.R.B. which is an acronym for Citizens Law Enforcement Review Board, which governs the actions of the San Diego County Sherriff's & Probation Departments. His goal is to love & lead people to a greater life. His philosophy is "there are never loses in life, just lessons."

Citizens' Law Enforcement Review Board Members

Dr. R. Lee Brown

Dr. Brown earned a Doctorate in Leadership Studies and a Masters in Cross-Cultural counseling. His numerous leadership experiences, and professions includes;

Vice President (CHRO)-human resources, CRO-Chief Risk Office, extensive mediation and arbitration, Equity-Diversity & Inclusion, Financial Services in Insurance, Director of Program Management, Senior Project Management, Law Enforcement Oversight- Collaboration-Wellness, Auditing, Governmental Reporting and Compliance, University Research, Collective Bargaining, Contracts, Executive Coaching, Community Mental Health Engagement, and Cross-Cultural Workplace Energy Designs.

In addition, he has served on numerous industry and civic boards; McGill School of Success, California State University (CSU)-Risk Management Authority (CSURMA), CSU-Auxiliary Organizations joint powers authority, Urban League of San Diego County, San Diego NAACP, and San Diego ASPCA-Humane Society. Dr. Brown designed Workers' Compensation-Captive insurance, and Cyber Liability financing programs that saves California State Universities and other entities hundreds of millions of dollars annually.

Dr. Brown is also the longest serving President of the University of Southern California's Trojan Football Alumni.

Ariana Federico Mondragon

Ariana Federico Mondragon is a community organizer, advocate, and child of Mexican-Otomi immigrants. She was born and raised in Southeast San Diego, and early on, she recognized the power the community holds to impact change. Ariana has worked on various issue based campaigns including areas of police accountability, community transparency and transportation justice. Ariana earned a B.A. in Latin American and Latino Studies and Politics from UC-Santa Cruz.

Citizens' Law Enforcement Review Board Members

Andrew Hayes

Andrew Hayes is a life-long Lakeside resident. He attended the University of San Diego where he earned two bachelor's degrees one in Business Administration and the other in Political Science. In 2014, he joined the legislative office of then California State Senator Joel Anderson and in December of 2018 Hayes joined the legislative office of California State Senator Brian Jones and serves as his District Director. Hayes is an elected board member of the Lakeside Union School District Board of Trustees where he currently serves as the Board President. He is also a proud member of the Santee-Lakeside Rotary Club, Lakeside Kiwanis, Lakeside Historical Society, and Lakeside Friends of the Library.

Nadia Kean-Ayub

Ms. Kean-Ayub is a resident of the city of Chula Vista where she commits to bettering the through her activism. She is the Executive Director of Rainbow Spaces, a non-profit geared towards creating inclusive spaces for LGBTQ+ youth. She serves on the City of Chula Vista Human Relations Commissioner as Vice Chair and serves in various leadership roles in community groups.

Bonnie Kenk

Ms. Kenk, a native of Pennsylvania, has been a resident of San Diego since 1981. She served on the 2007-2008 San Diego County Grand Jury and spent over a decade volunteering with the state and local Grand Jury alumni organizations. She served a three-year term as the public member of the San Diego County Parole Board and a two-year term on the Community Review Board for Police Practices. Ms. Kenk works as a Tax Associate for TurboTax during the tax season. She, her husband Bill, their three dogs and six parrots reside in the Del Cerro area of the City of San Diego.

Citizens' Law Enforcement Review Board Members

Tim Ware

“Having the greatest effect on the greatest amount of people in the shortest amount of time” is Tim Ware’s life mission statement. As School Safety and Security Coordinator for The San Diego County Office of Education, Mr. Ware leads the effort to provide quality support in School Safety and Security for SDCOE’s Main Campus, satellite locations as well as the county’s 42 school districts and numerous Charter and Private Schools in San Diego County.

Mr. Ware’s wealth of knowledge in School Safety and Security acquired as a Deputy Probation Officer for both juveniles and adults and 20 years serving as School Intervention Manager in the Public School System has prepared him well for the challenges found in today’s world of school safety. His experience in school safety includes developing Emergency Operation Plans, Crisis Response and building highly effective school safety teams. He is well respected for his work in coordinating prevention, response and recovery efforts with Law Enforcement and San Diego’s Military Community.

After a stellar Collegiate career at the University of Southern California (USC), Tim played professionally for the San Diego Chargers and Los Angeles Raiders. Since retiring from the National Football League, Tim has diversified his skills by developing creative systems to advance school safety and developed creative programming for youth. Tim is an accomplished and dynamic speaker in the areas of Transformational Leadership, School Safety, the Role of Men in the Home and in the Community and a variety of topics from a Christian and secular perspective.

Gary I. Wilson

Mr. Wilson, a resident of Carlsbad, is a retired United States Marine Corps combat veteran. He is an Adjunct Professor at Palomar College and a Board-Certified Protection Professional (CPP), Certified Threat Manager (CTM), DHS-certified Master Trainer in the instruction of Behavioral Threat Assessment and Management (BTAM), and a forensic consultant. He has a Force Science Institute Certification in Force Science Analysis. He has a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology and Biology, a Master of Arts in Security Management, and a Master of Arts in Forensic Psychology.