General Information:

The Citizens' Law Enforcement Review Board consists of 11 members nominated by the Chief Administrative Officer and appointed by the Board of Supervisors. Members serve at the pleasure of the Board of Supervisors. The members shall serve without compensation and the term shall not exceed three years. Members may be appointed for not more than two consecutive full terms. Members must be qualified electors of San Diego County and should have a reputation for integrity and responsibility, and a demonstrated active interest in public affairs and service. County employees and persons employed as peace officers or custodial officers shall not be eligible to be a member of the board. Members must be able to make the time and personal commitment required and will be dropped from the board upon missing three (3) consecutive regular meetings. The board presently meets regularly once a month with investigative hearings and subcommittee meetings scheduled as required. Members will undergo an extensive and mandatory training program to include "ride-alongs" with Sheriff's deputies on patrol, participation in selected training academy exercises, tours of detention facilities and several hours of orientation including the role, rights and responsibilities of peace officers and custodial officers. Each member undergoes a background investigation (criminal record and verification of data on the application) prior to being appointed to the Review Board. If considered for nomination to the Review Board, date of birth will be required for the background investigation.

To ensure that the Review Board membership reflects the diverse socioeconomic, ethnic, professional, demographic and geographic distribution of County residents, please provide the following information:
