Consultants shall be included in the list of Designated Employees and shall disclose pursuant to the broadest disclosure category in this Code subject to the following limitation:

The Director of the Department may determine, in writing that a particular consultant, although a "designated position," is hired to perform a range of duties that are limited in scope and thus is not required to fully comply with the disclosure requirements described in this section. Such written determination shall include a description of the consultant's duties and, based on that description, a statement of the extent of disclosure requirements. The determination by the Director of the Department is a public record and shall be retained for public inspection in the same manner and location as this statement.

*The letter and number codes for the Disclosure Categories represent various economic interests. See FPPC Form 700 for a listing of the codes for the economic interests to be listed under the heading of Disclosure Categories.
