	Consultants:
	Consultants shall be included in the list of designated employees and shall disclose pursuant to the broadest disclosure category in the code, subject to the following limitation:
	The Behavioral Health Services Director may determine, in writing, that a particular consultant, although a "designated position," is hired to perform a range of duties that are not limited in scope and thus is not required to fully comply with the disclosure requirements described in this section. Such written determination shall include a description of the consultant's duties and, based on that description, a statement of the extent of disclosure requirements. The Behavioral Health Services Director's determination is a public record and shall be retained for public inspection in the same manner and location as this conflict of interest code.
	Disclosure Categories:
	The letter and number codes for the Disclosure Categories represent various economic interests. See FPPC Form 700 for a listing of the codes and their descriptions.
