To reserve to the Board of Supervisors the authority to change, modify or revoke any policy at any time and likewise the authority to make or authorize exemptions to any policy when it determines that in the particular case it would not be in the public interest that such policy be followed.

Background

Pursuant to a Board of Supervisors' request of June 23, 1969 (98) the County Counsel prepared this policy to clarify the Board's reservation of the above-mentioned authority to modify or except certain policies from time to time.
