Speaker's Guide

Information provided on this form is part of public records.

Public Comments section provides an opportunity for members of the public to speak to the Board on any subject matter within the Board's jurisdiction.

If a member of the public wishes to speak on a specific agenda item, there will be a section that allows for public comments on Agenda items after staff presentations.

Please note regarding public comments:

The Board members may not discuss or take action on issues raised during public comments unless the issue is listed in this agenda.

- Any member of the public wishing to speak to the Board must file a Speaker Slip listing which items they wish to speak on prior to the start of the meeting.
- Members of the public will be allocated two (2) minutes to speak for each item.
