Project Comments:	① A segment of the audience tonight was unhappy that there is no FAA representative available to address aircraft concerns. Does the FAA have any responsibility, authority, or control over any portion of this study ② If FAA has no part in this Airport Master Plan Study, what agency will be the final authority to accept or reject this plan?

- I38-1 Regarding FAA responsibilities, please refer to Master Response 7 (FAA Involvement and Oversight). The County is the Lead Agency of the Master Plan Update (i.e., Proposed Project) as defined by CEQA, and the County is the operator of McClellan-Palomar Airport. As such, the County Board of Supervisors will ultimately consider the Proposed Project.
