(a) Action of the Advisory Committee shall be taken by motion. Any action of the Advisory Committee may be proposed by the motion of any Member. Such a motion, if seconded by any Member, shall be on the floor and must be considered. If a motion is not seconded, the motion fails for lack of a second, and shall be so declared by the Chairperson.

(b) A motion may be withdrawn by its maker at any time before adoption or rejection, with the consent of any second. Absent the consent of the second, the motion shall remain on the floor. The second to a motion may be withdrawn by the second at any time before adoption or rejection of the motion. Upon withdrawal of the second, the motion will be lost for lack of a second and so declared by the Chairperson unless seconded by another Member.

(c) Once the Chairperson has recognized the right of a Member to speak, the Chairperson shall protect the speaker from disturbance or interference. The Chairperson, when the interest of the Advisory Committee requires, may permit a Member to be interrupted.

The Chairperson may call for the vote if it appears that further discussion will be repetitious or that a majority of the Members present concur in the call.

(g) At any time after a motion has been seconded, any Member may move to table the motion. If the motion to table is seconded, the Chairperson shall forthwith call for a vote on such motion. A motion to table shall include all amendments to the original motion. A motion to table an item is not debatable and no further discussion or debate shall be permitted on either the original motion or the motion to table. If the motion to table does not pass, consideration of the original motion will continue. If the motion to table does pass, the original motion will remain on the floor but may not again be considered at that meeting unless a motion to remove the original motion from the table is passed. The original motion may then be considered and voted upon at the next regular meeting of the Advisory Committee unless again tabled. If not considered at such meeting, it will be deemed lost. For the purposes of this subsection, an adjourned meeting shall be considered a separate meeting.

(h) A motion to adjourn or a motion to fix time of adjournment shall be decided with debate.

(i) A motion to consider the previous question shall preclude all amendments from debate to the main question and shall be put in the form "shall the main question be put to a vote."

(j) A Member called to order shall relinquish the floor unless permitted to explain, and the Advisory Committee, if appealed to, shall decide on the case, but without debate. If there is not appeal, the decision of the Chairperson shall be final.

If the chairperson grants the motion for reconsideration, he or she shall specify the procedures and schedule to be followed for the Advisory Committee's consideration and vote on the renewed motion. If the chair denies the motion for reconsideration, there will be no further discussion on the matter.

(l) A motion to commit to an Ad Hoc Subcommittee shall specify the purpose of the Ad Hoc Subcommittee, the length of time the subcommittee shall serve, appoint at least 3 subcommittee members, 1 of whom must be a member of the Advisory Committee, and the times and methods by which the subcommittee shall report to the Advisory Committee.
