National

a. Chef Ann Foundation – Bulk Milk Grants for Schools

- i. Schools are required by the U.S. Department of Agriculture to offer students milk with every lunch or breakfast they serve. Most schools today serve milk in disposable cartons or plastic bottles. With 31+ million lunches and 13+ million breakfasts served every single school day, year after year, milk packaging and liquid waste is one of the biggest sources of waste generated by school food programs. Bulk Milk grants provide eligible schools across the country nearly everything they need to transition from serving milk in single-use cartons or bottles to serving milk in bulk. This includes bulk milk dispensers, staff training, marketing materials, and technical assistance. For more information, please visit:

<https://www.chefannfoundation.org/what-we-do/bulk-milk/>.

Applications are due June 26, 2025.

b. USDA's Farmers Market Promotion Program (FMPP) application period is open!

- i. FMPP offers four different project types, ranging from 24 to 36 months.
- ii. Please refer the website for additional information, including eligible entities and application details. The floor for FMPP awards is $50,000, with a ceiling of $500,000 (depending upon project type). An important note: there is a cost share/match requirement of 25% cash or in-kind contribution. Applications are due June 27, 2025.

c. The Local Food Promotion Program (LFPP) application period is also open!

- i. Similar to the FMPP, LFPP offers four different project types, ranging from 24 to 36 months. Eligible entities may apply if they support local and regional food business enterprises that process, distribute, aggregate, or store locally or regionally produced food products. The floor for LFPP awards is $25,000, with a ceiling of $500,000 (depending upon project type). Visit the program page for additional information, including application details. An important note: there is a cost share/match requirement of 25% cash or in-kind contribution. Applications are due June 27, 2025.

d. A third funding opportunity is available: the Regional Food System Partnerships (RFSP).

- i. RFSP offers two types of projects: a 24-month Planning and Design project ($100,000 to $250,000), and 36-month Implementation and Expansion project ($250,000 to $1,000,000). Eligible entities include producers, farmer or rancher cooperatives, community supported agriculture networks or associations, food councils, local governments, nonprofit corporations, regional farmers market authorities, and tribal governments, among others. Refer to the webpage for additional details. An important note: a 25% cash match is required. Applications are due June 27, 2025.

e. HFFI Food Access and Retail Expansion Fund \(HFFI FARE Fund\):

- i. Eligible applicant entities include for-profit business enterprises (including a corporation, limited liability company, sole proprietor, public benefit corporation); cooperatively owned businesses; tax-exempt nonprofit corporations; institutions of higher education; state and local governments and governmental agencies, authorities, commissions and food policy councils; tribal governments and tribal governmental agencies, authorities, and food policy councils.
- ii. The HFFI FARE Fund could assist a variety of organizations, business models, and capital needs of ventures that process, distribute, aggregate, market, and sell healthy, fresh, and affordable foods to underserved communities and markets.
- iii. Multiple rounds of grant application deadlines ~~12/12/2024,~~ 05/01/2025, and 10/02/2025. Loans and technical assistance funding inquiry forms accepted on rolling basis.

Local

a. Efficient Refrigeration Program (Farms Eligible!)

- i. San Diego Community Power is offering free energy-efficient refrigerators and freezers to help local corner stores, small businesses, and nonprofits stock California-grown produce, dairy, meat, eggs, and culturally appropriate foods. This initiative supports energy savings and access to fresh, healthy foods in low-income and low-food-access areas. Eligible participants must be SDCP commercial customers and meet basic criteria, including location and food benefit acceptance. Learn more and apply here.
