2. Public Comments & Communications

- a. Open Comments
 - i. County of San Diego DPW – County of San Diego Edible Food Recovery Working Group Participant Feedback Form
 - a) Please complete this voluntary form to help keep our contact list up-to-date and to provide ideas on topics you'd like to cover in future meetings.
 - ii. Abound Food Care Presentation – Anthony Martinez, Logistics Coordinator
 - i. Solar Powered Refrigeration and Food Recovery Efforts
 - a) Presentation to be included with minutes.
 - b) Q&A

- a) City of Chula Vista – How is it determined where units are placed? How long does installation take (including permitting, etc.)? What are the costs associated with these units?
 - i Abound Food Care – Placement dependent on greatest need in the event of a disaster (focused on areas where people could be cut off from evacuation sites in each district). Host is typically either a school district, city site, or nonprofit. Hosts are either responsible for or heavily involved in food distribution operations. Security is crucial, units must be placed in a gated area with regular surveillance (depending on function and components). Cost varies heavily, can be between $65,000-$175,000. Units are manufactured in China and assembled with digital controls in the States (takes approximately 30-90 days to install). Currently working on a build-on-site model.
- b) City of Chula Vista – Was there a cost associated with placing/storing units at certain sites?
 - i Abound Food Care – No cost for placement/storage, host are making space available since it is for emergency use and community assistance.
- c) City of Chula Vista – How are the units loaned out to food recovery organizations?
 - i Abound Food Care – Units were previously used for food distribution during covid. Relationships were developed with various organizations at that time, while also allowing for the capacity to receive and distribute food to be better understood. Community hub models were utilized, and hosts are given a say on where food goes.
- d) I Love to Glean – Do you have data or reporting comparing your services and solar containers to other types of cold storage?
 - i Abound Food Care – Units run just as well as any other kind of walk-in cooler or storage unit so long as it's provided regular maintenance.

3. SB 1383 – Implementation, Discussion, Q&A

- a. Enforcement Plans/Process
 - i. City of Chula Vista – When jurisdictions are looking for food recovery agreements during inspections, how successful are you with obtaining those agreements. Are there any resources that other jurisdictions are using that have helped?
 - a) County of San Diego DPW – The County has a template food recovery agreement form that some generators have used for existing, non-food bank partnerships. However, majority of the generators that we've worked with gravitated towards either major food bank's agreements instead.

- b) Solana Center for Environmental Innovation – Solana Center staff also provide a template agreement to generators and FROs but inform them of both food bank's agreements as well. Most of the businesses work with either major food bank (about 90% use the food bank agreement template).
- c) Life Acts – Business that work with food recovery services through digital feeding apps will also utilize the autogenerated agreements through those platforms.

- ii. City of Chula Vista – What are all the components that jurisdictions are looking for in those agreements?
 - a) County of San Diego DPW – Donation records, pickup schedule, and partnership agreements.
 - b) San Diego Food Bank – The San Diego Food Bank's provides the letter of agreement, donation pickup schedules, and contact information. Feel free to reach out to the food banks if a generator is missing any information or is unable to produce documentation.
 - c) Solana Center for Environmental Innovation – To streamline the process, jurisdictions could also provide generators with a binder to house all required edible food recovery documents to assist with assessments.

- b. Site Visits/Inspections – DEHQ Myths and Challenges
- c. Food Recovery Organization Site Visits
 - i. City of Chula Vista – Food recovery reporting reminder emails to be sent out November 2025, reports are due March 1st.
 - ii. County of San Diego DPW – County will be sending out its initial reminder notices this week to its FROs. Annual FRO reporting FAQ document was also recently updated and will be included in the reminder email.
 - iii. City of Encinitas – Reminder notices will also be sent to FROs in November 2025. City of Encinitas is planning on using data from their food recovery reports to contribute towards 10% of its recovered organic waste product procurement target per AB 2346.
 - iv. Chula Vista – Would the County be able to share the FAQ document with the group?
 - a) County of San Diego DPW – The document will be included with the minutes.
 - b) City of Coronado – FAQs | Edible Food Recovery Program | Project Coronado
 - v. Solana Center for Environmental Innovation – Email reminders are typically sent out 4 weeks before FRO reporting deadline. Solana Center staff also schedule visits right before the reporting deadline and assist upon request.

- d. Recordkeeping & Reporting (FRO's and Generators)
- e. Other roadblocks, concerns for discussion

4. SB 1383 – Public Education Resources

Local

b. Efficient Refrigeration Program (Farms Eligible!)

- ii. San Diego Community Power is offering free energy-efficient refrigerators and freezers to help local corner stores, small businesses, and nonprofits stock California-grown produce, dairy, meat, eggs, and culturally appropriate foods. This initiative supports energy savings and access to fresh, healthy foods in low-income and low-food-access areas. Eligible participants must be SDCP commercial customers and meet basic criteria, including location and food benefit acceptance. Learn more and apply here.

a. ReFED Catalytic Grant Fund, new cycle coming soon

- i. ReFED is planning the fourth open call under their Catalytic Grant Fund: Minimizing Methane Through Food Waste Solutions. This open call will focus on advanced food recycling (e.g., enhancing sorting, decontamination, processing, and access to create more effective and efficient systems) and reducing methane in the beef and dairy sectors. ReFED is expecting to begin accepting applications in December 2025. Visit here for the announcement, and here for more information on the Catalytic Grant Fund.

 - ii. Can't make the meeting? You can also participate online anytime.

8. Round Table

- a. Edible Food Recovery Working Group Lead Announcement
 - i. Brooke Yaptangco Flinn has taken on a new position within the County of San Diego's Solid Waste Planning and Recycling section and will be transitioning the lead of the Edible Food Recovery program to Joshua Keyton.
 - ii. Joshua Keyton will be chairing the Edible Food Recovery (EFR) Working Group meetings starting January 2026 and all EFR-related questions about this group should now be directed towards Joshua at Joshua.Keyton@sdcounty.ca.gov.
 - iii. The current meeting invite will be canceled and replaced with another invite sent by the County of San Diego's general recycling email at Recycle@sdcounty.ca.gov.

- b. Future Topics? Troubleshooting restaurants? Discussion on how to collaborate across jurisdictions and with FRO's – how to streamline processes (reporting, capacity planning), lessons learned.
 - i. City of Chula Vista - CRRA is set to be hosted in San Diego next year, Manuel Medrano is on the board, jurisdictions can reach out to him with ideas or questions at mmedrano@chulavistaca.gov.
 - ii. I Love to Glean – San Diego Unity Fund | San Diego Foundation
 - a) San Diego Foundation (SDF) today announced it has raised $32.3 million for the San Diego Unity Fund, and awarded more than $960,000, including this week's awards of $710,000 in Unity Fund emergency housing grants to five local nonprofits working to keep seniors and families housed. The rapid-response funding comes as federal cuts and rising costs put more residents at risk of losing their homes.
 - iii. I Love to Glean – The Senior Gleaners and the Association of Gleaning Organizations are putting together symposium for April 30th to May 1st at Marina Village. Calls for proposals are already coming out, more details to come.
 - iv. County of San Diego DPW – Reminder that December's meeting will be canceled, Happy Holidays everyone!
