Dr. Michelle Safferman

Michelle Safferman grew up in Baltimore, MD and completed her bachelor's degree at the University of Maryland in supply chain management. She then moved to NYC as an AmeriCorps member, working with medically underserved communities at federally qualified health centers across the city.

Dr. Safferman went on to receive her medical degree at Cooper Medical School of Rowan University in Camden, NJ and continued north to complete her residency in emergency medicine at Mount Sinai Morningside-West in NYC.

Dr. Safferman is currently a fellow in EMS & Disaster Medicine with special interests in medical education and disaster preparedness. In her free time, she enjoys running, hiking, baking, and spending as much time outside as possible.
