Public Comments:

1. Kim Jones, president of the Kinship Fund, provided information regarding “The Kinship Fund.” It is a new private foundation in San Diego that supports nonprofits financially and through compacity building. Those nonprofits that are working to help people pursue education and prevent the incarceration of youth and whole person health. Main reason for the introduction because is a subject matter expert in Human Trafficking. She would like to offer services because she has been working in that area for over a decade. Her previous position was the Executive Director Center for Justice and Reconciliation at Point Loma Nazarene University where she ran various programs in human trafficking for survivors and prevention.

Business:

1. Nomination and Election of Officers (moved to beginning of meeting)
2. In recognition of the 15th anniversary of Lilly Ledbetter Act and in celebration of all women who pursue their rights under our equal pay laws, co-sponsor a webinar (which will spotlight Sandra Maas) with U.S. Dept. of Labor Women's Bureau in January 2024: Comm. Ijadi-Maghsoodi and Comm. Davis have been speaking with the U.S. Dept of Labor Women's Bureau of the Western district. The Commission has been asked to co-sponsor the webinar which will involve helping to decide what is involved in the webinar and will spotlight San Diego native, Sandra Mass.
 - a. Comm. Ijadi-Maghsoodi moves to approve the Commission to co-sponsor a webinar in recognition of the 15th anniversary of the Lilly Ledbetter Act and in celebration of all women who pursue their rights under our equal pay laws, for the webinar to take place in January of 2024 in coordination with the U.S. Department of Labor Women's Bureau. Comm. Farjood seconds the motion. The main motion passes with 9 in favor, 1 against (Comm. Cabrera), and 0 abstentions.
3. Committee Reports: Please refer to committee reports submitted with the agenda packet.
 - a. Civic Engagement – no additional updates.
 - b. Policy – Comm. Gutierrez asked if there was a date selected for the [KYR] Symposium [on 3/9/2024]. There is a Women's HIV Conference on March 9 2024, so there is a potential conflict.
 - c. Governance – Comm. Ijadi-Maghsoodi shared the Governance Committee did vote on a site and selected the date for the CSWG Know Your Rights Symposium for March 9, 2024.
4. Initiative Updates and Liaison Reports:
 - a. Women's Hall of Fame: Comm. Vásquez shared there was Women's Hall of Fame meeting in November of 2023 where they selected their candidates but did not disclose them because the candidates have not been informed yet.
 - b. Association of California Commissions for Women: no additional updates.
5. Commissioner Announcements:
 - a. Comm. Custodio Suero would like to pursue in 2024, elder care. Has resources to share and will email to Chair for distribution to all commissioners.
 - b. Comm. Gutierrez shared the San Diego Coalition for Reproductive Justice is holding their Annual Post Roe F fundraiser on January 24th at the Mingei International Museum from 5pm-9:00pm. This year's theme is Empowerment in Action: Harnessing Community Power for Positive Change. Will share the link with Comm. Vásquez who will distribute to all Comm.
 - c. Comm. Davis would like to have evening meetings to increase attendance. Maybe 2-4 meetings or quarterly.
 - d. Comm. Benton would like why meetings are noon on Fridays since it breaks up workdays and can be difficult. She would like to explore, if possible, a change to virtual or how many times we can attend virtually.
 - e. Comm. Vásquez shared the commission met earlier this year to discuss changing the day and time since meetings used to be on Mondays at noon but commission votes changed it to noon on Fridays. The issue with having meeting in the meetings is that the Commission would have to pay for additional security to have building open. The Brown Act is why we cannot meet virtually with the exception with the attendance with cause.

- f. Comm. Davis would like to know if the Commission is tied to venue, do meetings have to be held at the County Administration Building or can they be held at the Mission Valley Library who has security. Comm. Vásquez would like to discuss that at the retreat.
- g. Comm. Ijadi-Maghsoodi mentioned there is the possibility of cancelling the January 2024 regular meeting and having the retreat which is in the Code and By-laws.
- h. The Executive Committee will decide what works best and let the Commission know the information.
