

NEXT MOVE

Supporting Justice-Involved Youth

Next Move is a specialized community-based outpatient program offering behavioral health services to youth up to the age of 21 with a justice intersection. The program is designed to support justice-involved youth and those at risk of justice involvement, with an emphasis on caring for youth transitioning out of a juvenile justice facility.

Next Move provides diagnostic evaluations, mental health, and co-occurring substance use treatment for youth and young adults who have Medi-Cal or are uninsured. Services are available countywide and emphasize supporting youth in developing tools for success.

SERVICES OFFERED

Depending on the need, services may include:

- Individual Therapy
- Family Therapy
- Group Therapy
- Substance Use Prevention and Education
- Psychiatric Assessment and Medication Management
- Case Management

HOW IT WORKS

Youth can be referred by anyone, including Probation, the court, schools, or caregivers. To make a referral, call (858) 351-6400, fax the referral form to (619) 399-3724, or email the referral form to BHS.NextMoveProgram.HHSA@sdcounty.ca.gov

Referral reviewed and Next Move Clinician assigned within 5 days.

Clinician contacts the referring party and sets up a time to meet with the youth and caregiver.

If in detention, Clinician meets with youth prior to release.

Youth offered first appointment to occur within 5 days post-release.
