- GREG & CHERYL COX -

Greg Cox has served as a San Diego County Supervisor representing District 1 since 1995. He began his public service career as a teacher in the Sweetwater Union High School District. He was elected to the Chula Vista City Council and later served two terms as Mayor of Chula Vista. Supervisor Cox serves on the Board of the San Diego County Regional Airport Authority and was appointed by the California Assembly Speaker to the California Coastal Commission. His leadership is recognized on the federal level too as he is a member of the National Ocean Council's Governance Coordinating Committee, a group that advises the President on ocean policy issues.

Cheryl Cox served as Chula Vista's 39th mayor from 2006 to 2014. She received a Bachelor's degree from the University of San Diego, a Master's degree in Political Science from San Diego State University and a Doctorate in Education from the University of Southern California. She worked for 30 years for the Chula Vista Elementary School District as a teacher, principal, and administrator. She served six years on the Chula Vista Elementary School District Board of Trustees.
