VII. New Business (Jenny Rodriguez, Kevin Hauck, and Cathi Palatella)

- Human Trafficking Prevention Campaign
 - Jenny spoke about the new Commercial Sexual Exploitation of Children (CSEC) outdoor campaign that was launched on January 8, 2018 and will run for four weeks. The new campaign is a result of feedback received from the October 17, 2017 CAPCC meeting regarding the target audience for the prevention campaigns and the impact of the prevention messaging. The current CSEC campaign was shared with CSEC survivors and the design was among the top choices. Also included for tracking purposes in the campaign is the #250 mobile speed dial feature which will track the number of calls received for more information on the campaign.
 - Cathi shared that there has been positive feedback received from the campaign and the media has been asking for interviews. The work and relationship with iHeartMedia is greatly appreciated.
- Fatherhood Campaign (Kevin)
 - Fatherhood and father engagement has been brought up in CWS System Improvement Plan (SIP) discussions. CWS is considering adding a possible campaign in February for fatherhood engagement and involvement.
 - CWS is currently expanding the Cultural Broker program which was supported by the CAPCC as a pilot project. The contract expansion will be including fathers as a population served. Selected fathers involved with CWS will have a Cultural Broker to work through fatherhood issues in partnership with their social worker. The contract is currently being reprocured and expanded to include fathers, immigrant/refugee families and military families.

CAPCC REGULAR MEETING NOTES CONTINUED - TUESDAY – JANUARY 16, 2018

- Behavioral Health Services is also expanding their contract for fatherhood involvement similar to Cultural Brokers but on the mental health side. It is a 12 week evidenced based practice to improve father engagement and meet the mental health needs of the father and child. Fatherhood is a key piece being worked on and we hope to get feedback from the CAPCC on any ideas.

VIII. Old Business (Kevin Hauck)
