

What You Need to Know About Measles

About 9 out of 10 people exposed to measles will catch it if they are not protected.

Measles spreads through the air when an infected person coughs or sneezes.

Measles can cause serious health complications, especially in babies and young children.

LIVE WELL
SAN DIEGO

The best way to prevent measles is with the measles, mumps, and rubella (MMR) vaccine.

