

Screening & Tracing Apps

The following are screening applications that partners are currently utilizing. Those listed do not indicate an endorsement of any kind and are only being provided as general information based on a preliminary search.

Company	Platform (web-based, iOS, etc.),	Cost	Website	Other info
eMocha	Users receive a text to access the app Admin has access to an online dashboard with live data monitoring.	Unclear	https://emocha.com/	App has features that are more tailored to K-12 students
Kencor	Available on: Google Play (android and PC) App Store for iPhone and iPad	Free	https://www.kencorhealth.com/ (cannot access when connected to CoSD firewall)	Several media outlets have reported privacy concerns
ReturnSafe	Phone app (android or iPhone). Users log in with username/ password https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RYLH8ZLid0c Admin has access to an online portal for tracking data. https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fYay0ALwG6s	Unclear, but “significantly less” than: $10/month per user for screening and contact tracing $7/month per user for screening only	https://returnsafe.com/	Geared more towards businesses/ IHEs than for kids.
Campus Screen by Edverum	App for Android, iOS, or PC	Free	https://appadvice.com/app/campus-screen/1515835998	App developed by Stanbridge University. Users receive the results of their daily screening to show upon arrival. Results of last screen disappear after a certain amount of time. Unclear if school administrators will have access to data

Screening & Tracing Apps

The following are screening applications that partners are currently utilizing. Those listed do not indicate an endorsement of any kind and are only being provided as general information based on a preliminary search.

Campus Clear	Users receive a text to download mobile app for iOS or Android Users authenticate their devices with their school emails (site specifies “.edu” addresses) Admin has access to an online dashboard with real-time data	Free	https://www.campusclear.com/	Geared towards IHEs