12. Adjournment

Public comment rules:

- Will be heard in the following segments: 1) at the beginning of the meeting, for comments not relating to agenda items, and 2) at the start of each agenda item for comments relating to the item.
- If you would like to make a public comment/say something to the HIV Planning Group please click “raise your hand” in WebEx or Zoom, type something in the chat box, or unmute yourself and ask to be recognized by the Chair.
- Limit of ten minutes per segment and two minutes per speaker except under special circumstances based upon the expected number of speakers, the timeframe for decision-making, and whether additional public meetings have been held prior to the HIV Planning Group, at which extensive public and community comment was heard and included in reports or recommendations before the HIV Planning Group. Under any or all these circumstances, the Chair may modify the time limit for public comment. The time is allotted to provide comment only, not to ask questions or engage in a discussion with HIV Planning Group members. Public comment presented at IVI Planning Group meetings does not require response or discussion by the HIV Planning Group. All comments shall be made in a respectful manner (e.g., no profanity, yelling, bullying, or abusive language).
