2022 Accessibility Board Letter

Kaye summarized the Board letter for the Committee. Kaye requested to respond to the letter, to assist County staff and their efforts. Kaye will draft a letter for review at the April meeting.

Todd discussed key elements and recommendations of the letter and requested input on a community survey before it goes out to the community. Todd discussed a virtual outreach session with community members and requested feedback from the Committee on the draft survey. The outreach session will support responding to the accessibility Board Letter. The Committee provided feedback and suggestions:

1. A portal of accessibility resources with “intelligent” look-up
2. Offer a survey by phone option (manned and automated)
3. A modern listing of reasonable modifications tailored to social and cultural needs

2022 Committee Objectives

Kaye read the objectives and opened them up for discussion among the Committee members. Objectives are as follows:

1. To ensure 211 resources are accurate and current
2. To ensure jails and public defender have accessible programs, services and activities
3. To ensure Registrar of Voters has accessible programs, services and activities
4. Assess the impacts of distance learning on special education
5. Provide resources for disabled veterans for tracking accessible housing

Kaye requests this be a standing meeting agenda items.
