Excepting therefrom that portion lying Northwesterly and Westerly of a line described as follows:

Also, excepting therefrom, that portion lying Southerly of the following described line.

An easement for road and utility purposes over, under, along and across the Westerly 10.00 feet of the Southwest quarter of the Southwest quarter of Section 25 and the Westerly 10.00 feet of the North quarter of the Northwest quarter of Section 36; all being in Township 10 South, Range 1 West, San Bernardino Base and Meridian, in the County of San Diego, State of California, according to official plat thereof.

Excepting that portion lying within Parcel 1 above.

The above-described real property is identified in San Diego County records as Assessor's Parcel Numbers 133-190-12, 133-190-13, 133-190-14, and 133-190-15 (Arias), containing 30.01 acres, more or less. Based on a legal opinion obtained from the Office of Solicitor, the subject property is contiguous to the Rincon Reservation.

Federal Law authorizes the Secretary of the Interior, or her authorized representatives, to acquire title on behalf of the United States of America for the benefit of tribes when such acquisition is authorized by an Act of Congress and (1) when such lands are within the exterior boundaries of an Indian reservation, or adjacent thereto, or within a tribal consolidation area; or (2) when the tribe already owns an interest in the land; or (3) when the Secretary determines that the land is necessary to facilitate tribal self-determination, economic development, or tribal housing. In this particular instance, the authorizing Act of Congress is the Indian Reorganization Act (IRA) of June 18, 1934 (25 U.S.C §5108 (Formerly §465)). The applicable regulations are set forth in the Code of Federal Regulations (CFR), Title 25, INDIANS, Part 151, as amended.

On July 21, 2021, by certified mail, return receipt requested, we issued notice of, and sought comments regarding the proposed fee to trust application from the Senior Advisor for Tribal Negotiations, Legal Affairs Secretary, Office of the Governor; Sara Drake, Deputy Attorney General, State of California, Department of Justice; U.S. Senator Diane Feinstein; U.S. Senator Alex Padilla; Representative Darrell Issa, U.S. House of Representatives-50th District; Assemblywoman Marie Waldron, 75th Assembly District; Senator Brian Jones, 38th Senate District; San Diego County Assessor; County of San Diego, Board of Supervisors; San Diego County Treasurer & Tax Collector; San Diego County Sheriff's Department; San Diego County Department of Planning and Development; San Diego County Fire; Barona Group of Capitan Grande Band of Mission Indians; Campo Band of Diegueno Mission Indians; Ewiiapaayp Band of Kumeyaay Indians; Inaja Band of Diegueno Mission Indians of the Inaja and Cosmit Reservation; Jamul Indian Village; La Jolla Band of Luiseno Indians; La Posta Band of Diegueno Mission Indians; Los Coyotes Band of Cahuilla & Cupeno Indians; Manzanita Band of Diegueno Mission Indians; Mesa

In response to our notification, we received the following informational comments:

1. Letter dated August 10, 2022 from the County of San Diego Assessor/Recorder/County Clerk (Assessor) that provided copies of the Assessor's Master Property Records and a list showing distribution of taxes for the 2021-2022 roll.
2. Letter dated August 23, 2022 from the County of San Diego Planning & Development Services (Planning) that provided a breakdown of the distribution of taxes and special assessments levied on the property for the 2021-2022 fiscal year. Planning identified the government services currently provided to the property, including law enforcement services, County library services, as well as two nearby County parks. Planning confirms that the current use of the property is consistent with the current zoning.

Pursuant to 25 CFR §151.10, the Secretary will consider the following requirements in evaluating tribal requests for the acquisition of lands in trust status, when the land is located within and/or contiguous to the tribe's reservation, and the acquisition is not mandated: 151.10 (a) existence of Statutory Authority for the acquisition and any limitations contained in such authority; 151.10 (b) need of the tribe for additional land; 151.10 (c) the purpose for which the land will be used; 151.10 (e) impact on the State and its political subdivisions resulting from removal of the land from the tax rolls; 151.10 (f) jurisdictional problems and potential conflict of land use which may arise; 151.10 (g) whether the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA) is equipped to discharge the additional responsibilities resulting from the acquisition of the land in trust status, 151.10 (h) and whether or not contaminants or hazardous substances may be present on the property. Accordingly, the following analysis of the application is provided.

Our review and analysis of the requirements to evaluate this Tribal request as set forth in 25 Code of Federal Regulations, §151.10 (a) through (h) determined the following:

25 CFR §151.10(a) Statutory authority for the acquisition of the property:

25 U.S.C. §5108 INDIAN REORGANIZATION ACT OF JUNE 18, 1934 (48 STAT. 984).

Section 5 of the IRA (Section 5)¹ authorizes the Secretary to acquire land in trust for "Indians." Section 19 of the Act (Section 19) defines "Indian" to include several categories of persons.² As relevant here, the first definition includes all persons of Indian descent who are members of "any recognized Indian tribe now under federal jurisdiction."³ In 2009, the United States Supreme Court (Supreme Court) in *Carcieri v. Salazar*⁴ (Carcieri) construed the term "now" in the IRA's first definition to refer to 1934, the year of the IRA's enactment. The Supreme Court did not consider the meaning of the phrases "under federal jurisdiction."

In 2014, the Department's Solicitor issued Sol. Op. M-37029 (M-37029) interpreting the statutory phrase "under Federal jurisdiction" (UFJ) for purposes of determining whether an Indian tribe can demonstrate that it was UFJ in 1934 for purposes of Section 5 of the IRA.⁵ Multiple federal court decisions have held that the Department's interpretation of the IRA's first definition of "Indian" memorialized in M-37029 was reasonable.⁶ Accordingly, we rely on M-37029 to guide our analysis here.

The Tribe's Section 18 Election Under the IRA:

The IRA was a statute of general applicability but included an opt-out provision.⁷ Section 18 directed the Secretary to conduct elections to allow Indians residing on a reservation to vote to accept or reject application of the Act.⁸ In order for the Secretary to conclude that a reservation was eligible for an election, a determination had to be made that the residents satisfied one of the IRA's definitions of "Indian." Between 1934 and 1936, the Department conducted 258 Section 18 elections,⁹ the results of which were compiled by the Department in what later became known as the Haas Report.¹⁰

The Department recognizes that the calling of a Section 18 election serves as unambiguous evidence demonstrating federal jurisdiction over a federally recognized tribe.¹¹ Federal courts and the Interior Board of Indian Appeals have repeatedly held that Section 18 elections constitute unambiguous evidence that the Department considered a tribe or reservation to be under federal jurisdiction in 1934.¹² This is true irrespective of whether the Section 18 election resulted in the adoption or rejection of the IRA.¹³

In 1934, the United States understood that the Rincon Band of Luiseno Mission Indians of Rincon Reservation was under the federal jurisdiction and supervision of the United States, and that the adult residents of the Tribe met the IRA's definition of "Indian." As detailed in the Haas Report, on December 15, 1934, the Tribe voted on the IRA.¹⁴ One hundred and fourteen members of the Tribe residing at the Reservation were eligible to vote, and fifty-eight members voted against accepting the IRA while twenty-two members voted in its favor.¹⁵

Based on the foregoing, we conclude that the Tribe was "under Federal jurisdiction" in 1934 and the Secretary is authorized to acquire land in trust for the Tribe under Section 5 of the IRA.

25 C.F.R. §151.10(b) - The need of the individual Indian or a Tribe for additional land:

The acquisition of the Arias property in trust for the Tribe is part of the Tribe's comprehensive plan for restoration of its aboriginal land base. The Tribe wants to ensure that the Arias property is maintained and protected well into the future and that the Tribe continues to be the beneficial owner of the property.

The Rincon Reservation consists of approximately 4,725 acres, of which 4,369 acres are held in trust for the Tribe as a whole, with approximately 250 acres assigned to individual tribal members for their use. The remainder 356 acres were allotted for individual ownership for their exclusive use. The majority of the Reservation is either rugged terrain or flood plain subject to environmental constraints.

Acquisition of the Arias property in trust will help increase the Tribe's ability to exercise self-determination, preserve cultural resources, and protect Tribal land from dumping, environmental hazards, unauthorized trespass, and jurisdictional conflict. Further, the acquisition in trust will help the Tribe to maintain the property as open space.

25 C.F.R. §151.10(c) – Purpose for which the property will be used:

The Arias property is currently vacant, open space with one residence and three sheds from a former agricultural enterprise. The Tribe plans to maintain the Arias property as open space.

U.S. Dept. of the Interior*, 919 F.Supp.2d 51, 67-68 (D.D.C. 2013) (Section 18 elections conclusive evidence of being under federal jurisdiction); *Stand Up for California! v. 25 C.F.R. §151.10(d) – If the land is to be acquired for an individual Indian, the amount of trust or restricted land already owned by or for that individual and the degree to which he needs assistance in handling his affairs:

This regulatory requirement is not applicable to Tribal acquisitions.

25 C.F.R. §151.10(e) – Impact on State and its political subdivisions resulting from the removal of this property from the tax rolls:

In the 2021-22 tax year, the total tax assessed on the subject property was $10,697.23. During the comment period, none of the solicited agencies indicated that any adverse impacts would result from the removal of the subject parcels from the tax rolls.

The Tribe will ensure that all essential services – security, fire protection, natural resources protections, etc. – are provided to the property using existing federal allocations and/or revenue from the Tribe’s economic enterprises that fund tribal government operations.

It is our determination that no significant impact will result from the removal of this property from the county tax rolls. given the relatively small amount of tax revenue assessed on the subject property.

25 C.F.R. §151.10(f) – Jurisdictional problems and potential conflicts of land use:

The acceptance of the Arias property into federal trust status for the benefit of the Tribe will remove the property from State and local jurisdiction concerning real property taxation and other land use regulations. Tribal law will govern these activities after the property is accepted into trust, to much the same extent that it does now on existing trust lands. The subject property is currently zoned A70 (Limited Agriculture). There is no anticipated change in use of this property, therefore no jurisdictional problems or potential conflicts are anticipated.

There will be no change in criminal jurisdiction as jurisdiction in California is subject to 18 U.S.C. §1162 and 28 U.S.C. §1360 (P.L. 83-280). The State of California would retain its jurisdiction to enforce its criminal/prohibitory laws against all persons and conduct occurring on the land.

It is our determination that there are no jurisdictional or potential conflicts regarding land use.

25 C.F.R. §151.10(g) – Whether the Bureau of Indian Affairs is equipped to discharge the additional responsibilities:

Additional responsibilities resulting from the transaction are foreseen to be minimal and acceptance of the Arias property in trust status will not impose any significant additional responsibilities or burdens upon the Agency beyond those already inherent in the Federal trusteeship over the existing trust lands. The Agency will be required to maintain trust title. The Agency and Regional Office would be able to discharge any additional responsibilities associated with the acceptance of the parcel into trust status. The Tribe will continue to manage the Arias property and will maintain accessibility for the BIA.

25 C.F.R. §151.10(h) – Environmental Compliance: The extent to which the applicant has provided information that allows the Secretary to comply with 516 DM 1-7, National Environmental Policy Act Revised Implementing Procedures, and 602 DM 2, Land Acquisitions: Hazardous Substances Determination:

National Environmental Policy Act Compliance

The Bureau of Indian Affairs' guidelines for National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (NEPA) compliance are set forth in the Bureau of Indian Affairs manual (59 IAM). The proposed action herein has been determined not to require the preparation of either an Environmental Assessment (EA) or an Environmental Impact Statement (EIS). A Categorical Exclusion for the acquisition of the Arias property was approved by this Agency on June 4, 2020. Compliance with NEPA has been completed.

National Historic Preservation Act (NHPA) Compliance

Section 106 of the National Historic Preservation Act (NHPA) requires federal agencies to consider the effects of their land acquisition approvals with the potential to affect historic properties. No change in land use is planned for the Arias acquisition. Therefore, the BIA determined there is no potential to affect historic properties on the subject property.

Endangered Species Act (ESA) Compliance

The Endangered Species Act (ESA) requires federal agencies to determine if its action may affect a threatened or endangered species. The BIA reviews concluded no affects to endangered or threatened species would result from the Arias acquisition.

Hazardous Substances Determination

In accordance with Interior Department Policy (602 DM 2), we are charged with the responsibility of conducting a site assessment for the purposes of determining the potential of, and extent of liability from hazardous substances or other environmental remediation or injury.

A Phase I Environmental Site Assessment (ESA) was conducted for the Arias property on December 20, 2019, with a Phase 1 Certification Memo dated May 22, 2020. The Phase I found an area of potential contamination which was investigated in a May 25, 2022 Phase II ESA. The Phase II found no contamination. Thus, no further investigation or remediation is required. An updated Phase I ESA will be conducted within six months of the acceptance of title to ensure there are no significant changes to conditions on the property.

25 CFR 151.13 Title Examination

Title review by the Office of the Solicitor, Pacific Southwest Region, was requested on November 17, 2021, and a favorable opinion of title was issued on June 6, 2022. The procedure for acquiring title to subject property by the United States of America in trust for the Tribe is acknowledged and in accordance with the Department's procedures.

Conclusion

Based on the foregoing analysis, and a finding that all applicable legal requirements have been satisfied, the Regional Director, Pacific Region, is issuing this notice of our intent to approve the taking of the subject property into trust status for the benefit and welfare of the Rincon Band of Luiseno Mission Indians of Rincon Reservation, California. The subject acquisition will vest title in the United States of America in trust for the Rincon Band of Luiseno Mission Indians of Rincon Reservation, California in accordance with the Indian Reorganization Act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 984; 25 U.S.C. 5108).

Any party who wishes to seek judicial review of this decision must first exhaust administrative remedies. The Regional Director's decision may be appealed to the Interior Board of Indian Appeals (IBIA) in accordance with the regulations in 43 C.F.R. 4.310-4.340.

If you choose to appeal this decision, your notice of appeal to the IBIA must be signed by you or your attorney and must be either postmarked and mailed (if you use mail) or delivered (if you use another means of physical delivery, such as FedEx or UPS) to the IBIA within 30 days from the date of receipt of this decision. The regulations do not authorize filings by facsimile/fax or by electronic means. Your notice of appeal should clearly identify the decision being appealed. You must send your original notice of appeal to the IBIA at the following address: Interior Board of Indian Appeals, Office of Hearings and Appeals, U.S. Department of the Interior, 801 North Quincy Street, Suite 300, Arlington, Virginia 22203. Your notice of appeal sent to the IBIA must include a statement certifying that you have sent copies to these officials and interested parties and should identify them by names or titles and addresses.

If you file a notice of appeal, the IBIA will notify you of further procedures. If no appeal is timely filed, this decision will become final for the Department of the Interior at the expiration of the appeal period. No extension of time may be granted for filing a notice of appeal.

state specifically and concisely the grounds upon which it is based.

(b) Notice; burden of proof. The OHA deciding official will, upon receipt of a demand for hearing, set a time and place therefor and must mail notice thereof to all parties in interest not less than 30 days in advance; provided, however, that such date must be set after the expiration of the 60-day period fixed for the filing of the demand for hearing as provided in § 4.305(a). At the hearing, each party challenging the tribe's claim to purchase the interests in question or the valuation of the interests as set forth in the valuation report will have the burden of proving his or her position.

(c) Decision after hearing; appeal. Upon conclusion of the hearing, the OHA deciding official will issue a decision which determines all of the issues including, but not limited to, a judgment establishing the fair market value of the interests purchased by the tribe, including any adjustment thereof made necessary by the surviving spouse's decision to reserve a life estate in one-half of the interests. The decision must specify the right of appeal to the Board of Indian Appeals within 60 days from the date of the decision in accordance with §§ 4.310 through 4.323. The OHA deciding official must lodge the complete record relating to the demand for hearing with the title plant as provided in § 4.236(b), furnish a duplicate record thereof to the Superintendent, and mail a notice of such action together with a copy of the decision to each party in interest.

§ 4.306 Time for payment.

A tribe must pay the full fair market value of the interests purchased, as set forth in the valuation report or as determined after hearing in accordance with § 4.305, whichever is applicable, within 2 years from the date of decedent's death or within 1 year from the date of notice of purchase, whichever comes later.

§ 4.307 Title.

Upon payment by the tribe of the interests purchased, the Superintendent must issue a certificate to the OHA deciding official that this has been done and file therewith such documents in support thereof as the OHA deciding official may require. The OHA deciding official will then issue an order that the United States holds title to such interests in trust for the tribe, lodge the complete record, including the decision, with the title plant as provided in § 4.236(b), furnish a duplicate record thereof to the Superintendent, and mail a notice of such action together with a copy of the decision to each party in interest.

§ 4.308 Disposition of income.

During the pendency of the probate and up to the date of transfer of title to the United States in trust for the tribe in accordance with § 4.307, all income received or accrued from the land interests purchased by the tribe will be credited to the estate.

GENERAL RULES APPLICABLE TO PROCEEDINGS ON APPEAL BEFORE THE INTERIOR BOARD OF INDIAN APPEALS

SOURCE: 66 FR 67656, Dec. 31, 2001, unless otherwise noted.

§ 4.310 Documents.

(a) Filing. The effective date for filing a notice of appeal or other document with the Board during the course of an appeal is the date of mailing or the date of personal delivery, except that a motion for the Board to assume jurisdiction over an appeal under 25 CFR 2.20(e) will be effective the date it is received by the Board.

(b) Service. Notices of appeal and pleadings must be served on all parties in interest in any proceeding before the Interior Board of Indian Appeals by the party filing the notice or pleading with the Board. Service must be accomplished upon personal delivery or mailing. Where a party is represented in an appeal by an attorney or other representative authorized under 43 CFR 1.3, service of any document on the attorney or representative is service on the party. Where a party is represented by more than one attorney, service on any one attorney is sufficient. The certificate of service on an attorney or representative must include the name of the party whom the attorney or representative represents and indicate that service was made on the attorney or representative.

(c) Computation of time for filing and service. Except as otherwise provided by law, in computing any period of time prescribed for filing and serving a document, the day upon which the decision or document to be appealed or answered was served or the day of any other event after which a designated period of time begins to run is not to be included. The last day of the period so computed is to be included, unless it is a Saturday, Sunday, Federal legal holiday, or other nonbusiness day, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is not a Saturday, Sunday, Federal legal holiday, or other nonbusiness day. When the time prescribed or allowed is 7 days or less, intermediate Saturdays, Sundays, Federal legal holidays, and other nonbusiness days are excluded in the computation.

(d) Extensions of time. (1) The time for filing or serving any document except a notice of appeal may be extended by the Board.

(2) A request to the Board for an extension of time must be filed within the time originally allowed for filing.

(3) For good cause the Board may grant an extension of time on its own initiative.

(e) Retention of documents. All documents received in evidence at a hearing or submitted for the record in any proceeding before the Board will be retained with the official record of the proceeding. The Board, in its discretion, may permit the withdrawal of original documents while a case is pending or after a decision becomes final upon conditions as required by the Board.

§4.311 Briefs on appeal.

(a) The appellant may file an opening brief within 30 days after receipt of the notice of docketing. Appellant must serve copies of the opening brief upon all interested parties or counsel and file a certificate with the Board showing service upon the named parties. Opposing parties or counsel will have 30 days from receipt of appellant's brief to file answer briefs, copies of which must be served upon the appellant or counsel and all other parties in interest. A certificate showing service of the answer brief upon all parties or counsel must be attached to the answer filed with the Board.

(b) Appellant may reply to an answering brief within 15 days from its receipt. A certificate showing service of the reply brief upon all parties or counsel must be attached to the reply filed with the Board. Except by special permission of the Board, no other briefs will be allowed on appeal.

(c) The BIA is considered an interested party in any proceeding before the Board. The Board may request that the BIA submit a brief in any case before the Board.

(d) An original only of each document should be filed with the Board. Documents should not be bound along the side.

(e) The Board may also specify a date on or before which a brief is due. Unless expedited briefing has been granted, such date may not be less than the appropriate period of time established in this section.

§4.312 Decisions.

Decisions of the Board will be made in writing and will set forth findings of fact and conclusions of law. The decision may adopt, modify, reverse or set aside any proposed finding, conclusion, or order of a BIA official or an OHA deciding official. Distribution of decisions must be made by the Board to all parties concerned. Unless otherwise stated in the decision, rulings by the Board are final for the Department and must be given immediate effect.

§4.313 Amicus Curiae; intervention; Joinder motions.

(a) Any interested person or Indian tribe desiring to intervene or to join other parties or to appear as amicus curiae or to obtain an order in an appeal before the Board must apply in writing to the Board stating the grounds for the action sought. Permission to intervene, to join parties, to appear, or for other relief, may be granted for purposes and subject to limitations established by the Board. This section will be liberally construed.

(b) Motions to intervene, to appear as amicus curiae, to join additional parties, or to obtain an order in an appeal pending before the Board must be served in the same manner as appeal briefs.

§ 4.314 Exhaustion of administrative remedies.

(a) No decision of an OHA deciding official or a BIA official, which at the time of its rendition is subject to appeal to the Board, will be considered final so as to constitute agency action subject to judicial review under 5 U.S.C. 704, unless made effective pending decision on appeal by order of the Board.

(b) No further appeal will lie within the Department from a decision of the Board.

(c) The filing of a petition for reconsideration is not required to exhaust administrative remedies.

§ 4.315 Reconsideration.

(a) Reconsideration of a decision of the Board will be granted only in extraordinary circumstances. Any party to the decision may petition for reconsideration. The petition must be filed with the Board within 30 days from the date of the decision and must contain a detailed statement of the reasons why reconsideration should be granted.

(b) A party may file only one petition for reconsideration.

(c) The filing of a petition will not stay the effect of any decision or order and will not affect the finality of any decision or order for purposes of judicial review, unless so ordered by the Board.

§ 4.316 Remands from courts.

Whenever any matter is remanded from any federal court to the Board for further proceedings, the Board will either remand the matter to an OHA deciding official or to the BIA, or to the extent the court's directive and time limitations will permit, the parties will be allowed an opportunity to submit to the Board a report recommending procedures for it to follow to comply with the court's order. The Board will enter special orders governing matters on remand.

§ 4.317 Standards of conduct.

(a) Inquiries about cases. All inquiries with respect to any matter pending before the Board must be made to the Chief Administrative Judge of the Board or the administrative judge assigned the matter.

(b) Disqualification. An administrative judge may withdraw from a case in accordance with standards found in the recognized canons of judicial ethics if the judge deems such action appropriate. If, prior to a decision of the Board, a party files an affidavit of personal bias or disqualification with substantiating facts, and the administrative judge concerned does not withdraw, the Director of the Office of Hearings and Appeals will determine the matter of disqualification.

§ 4.318 Scope of review.

An appeal will be limited to those issues which were before the OHA deciding official upon the petition for rehearing, reopening, or regarding tribal purchase of interests, or before the BIA official on review. However, except as specifically limited in this part or in title 25 of the Code of Federal Regulations, the Board will not be limited in its scope of review and may exercise the inherent authority of the Secretary to correct a manifest injustice or error where appropriate.
