c. Set the group's priorities to be taken to chairmen's groundwater meeting with Dianne Jacob on September 3. The meeting was requested by Boulevard Chairman Donna Tisdale in a July 12 letter (forwarded to group), and is expected to include county hydrogeology staff. CLPMG recommended that the County raise the ground water depletion trigger to greater than 50 percent, pay closer attention to climate change and make a realistic plan on actions to be taken if the aquifer meets the depletion trigger. 7,0,0.

7. OLD BUSINESS:

- a. Standing Subcommittee reports:
 1. Groundwater, John Clarke: Status of state groundwater sustainability legislation and local impacts of state emergency water regulation. Larry Johnson reported that in addition to SB 1168, there is another ground water bill, SB 1179, that is also under consideration in Sacramento a second bill was attached to 1168.
 2. Sewer and Septic, Joe Carmody. No discussion.
 3. Community Economic Impacts, Steven Biddle reported that the Subway sandwich shop is under the ownership of Doug Wright and he will be hiring an additional 4 employees and the store will be open 24 hours. Debbie Benjamin has opened a malt shop in Lake Morena which has created jobs.
 4. Traffic and Public Safety, Jock Ogle reported that the judge will be making decision on placing a sexual predator in the community on September 2, 2014.

- b. Camp Lockett Committee Report: Larry Johnson, chairman, reported on progress toward a community-based plan to promote and develop park and visitor facilities on the Camp Lockett footprint.

8. CORRESPONDENCE AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

- a. The Star Ranch vesting and landscape architecture maps will be available for public perusal at all of our meetings. The map package consists of 23 pages of full-sized maps. The environmental impact statement is expected to be released in late summer, according to the county planner on the project.

- b. Lawsuit against San Diego County, Endangered Habitats League, Donna Tisdale and others: Greg Lansing and various corporate entities owned by him are suing for various alleged damages because he did not get permission to build an initial proposal for over 2,000 homes in Boulevard, and a subsequent attempt to get a contract from an industrial solar company. (forwarded to group).

- c. San Diego County will hold a series of meetings to get public input on its five-year plan to set funding priorities and an annual plan to create affordable housing opportunities, assist low-income residents, and improve neighborhoods in the County's unincorporated areas: In addition, applications are open to apply for next year's Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) funds for the unincorporated areas. The application deadline for next year's CDBG funds is October 24, 2014. Meeting will be held in Fallbrook, Ramona, Lincoln Acres, Spring Valley and online. The public is also invited to fill out the county's community needs survey online at <https://www.cosdfedback.com/se.ashx?s=5A22C6494DC1A2CA> Interested community members can contact any CLMPG member for further specifics. (forwarded to group)
