Group action is not permitted on items not on the agenda in accordance with the Brown Act. Sandra Wilson, Descanso Community Fire Safe Council, announced a workshop on Community Wild Fire Planning at the Descanso Library on May 6 from 2-3. On May 17 –June 9 there will be an elementary school poster contest, What to do if there is a Wildfire, with awards passed out by Smokey the Bear at a school assembly on June 9.

5. Action Items

- A. MUP 17-007 New Wireless Telecom Hulburd Grove, County of San Diego, Planning and Development Services will be present for questions Mr. Lucas Turner, of Mitchel J Architecture was representing applicant AT&T to answer questions from the DCPG members and residents present at the meeting as well as correspondence received regarding the project. The coverage map viewed during the meeting could not provide information regarding coverage at the school and library. Status of the AT&T land line was also brought up by the group. The group members requested that Mr. Turner arrange a site visit for the project and the alternative sites. Also requested were some visuals depicting alternative designs for cell tower camouflage, such as trees, instead of the depicted water tank. No decision regarding a group recommendation was reached and the project will be reheard at a future date after the site visit and new designs have been seen.
