 - i. Michael Kenney and Ernie Bartley from the County of San Diego plan on attending the December 7th meeting to discuss their findings regarding the intersection of Center City Parkway, Champagne Boulevard, Mountain Meadows & Deer Springs Roads and the coordination of all of the signal lights. They have been in communication with Cal Trans and are looking into the situation. Member Hogan indicated that he noticed an improvement on the couple of days he was there while Member Birch indicated that there was one day she was earlier than normal it is was still terrible, so they agreed it might depend on the time of the morning. Everyone is looking forward to the findings.
 - ii. Trails & Parks - Member Delin gave an update of conversations with the County representative. The money has been allocated and available for a park for the proposed park and he shared 4 possible sites with the group. Chairman Chagala recommended a zoom meeting with the county representative and several members of the committee to see about pushing for some clarity on the timeline and next steps.

8) PUBLIC REVIEW / ACTION ITEMS

a) PDS2023-MUP-23-008. Karve Ski Park. Chairman Chagala explained to the group that the proposal is to modify an existing permit for outdoor recreational uses, converting the existing driving range to an outdoor, year round, synthetic snow complex and recreation park at 26351 Center City Parkway. Concerns from the group included dark sky impact, noise, and traffic. Chairman Chagala advised that the representatives plan on attending the December 7th meeting to further discuss their plans with the group.

9) MEMBERS COMMENTS: Chairman Chagala advised that our December 7th meeting would be election of officers and that he has completed 4 years as chairman and will not serve in that capacity further. Member Birch indicated that she in the process of purchasing a home in another state and plans on relocating there in the Spring, so the committee should be looking for replacements for herself and the vacant seat.

10) AJOURNMENT: Member Sealey motioned to adjourn. Chairman Chagala seconded. Motion passed 7-0-0. Meeting adjourned at 7:50 p.m. Next meeting is scheduled for December 7, 2023.
