ACTION ITEMS:

7. STP 14-034 Multi Family Project Proposal on 16th St.
Discussion regarding traffic analysis. Casey Malone of Lansing Co. reported no significant impact was determined. Recommendation for a STOP sign at the southbound approach at 16th St. Parking requirements exceeded. 1.5/unit. Cannot provide additional. No public access across property. Traffic report accepted by County. Scott E concerned about number of parking spaces. Discussion. Might be good to have people go around to Ramona St. Maybe communicate to renters. They'll make their own choices.

Motion: Accept traffic report for this project as submitted with inclusion of recommendations as presented. 1. No significant impact, no light needed. 2. STOP sign southbound at 16th St. Project should pay impact fees to County.
1st Jim Cooper 2nd Lynn Hopewell vote 6-0-0
8. Concerns from Members
Jim Cooper has serious concerns about attendance of committee members. That individuals might use this position for political gain. This should not be a "punch the ticket" deal.

Lynn Hopewell is concerned about the pathway on Warnock. Discussion. County recently cleared up to Caltrans sign. Irrigation on adjacent landscaping.
