

I-180 Widney Hawthorne

I-180-1 The comment states that the commenter is her husband are looking for communities to downsize to, but nothing exists, and that their adult children have been able to find great jobs but no place to buy. The comment states the region is thousands of homes underbuilt and questions how “not in my backyard” voices can still find excuses to block growth.

The County acknowledges the comment as an introduction to comments that follow. This comment is included in the Final EIR for review and consideration by the decision-makers prior to a final decision on the project. No further response is required or necessary.

I-180-2 The comment states that the commenter supports the proposed project and has met with the project applicant’s representatives and has reviewed the land and the project. The commenter notes the applicant has held numerous community meetings to stakeholders, business chambers, rotaries and advisory groups. The comment states that, as an employers, “we cannot sustain local workers if we cannot start providing local housing.”

The County acknowledges the comment, and notes it expresses general support for the project, and does not raise any issue concerning the adequacy of the Draft EIR. For that reason, the County provides no further response to this comment.
