

I-204 Sarah Hunt

- I-204-1 The comment states that the project would not only endanger their way of life but in the event of a fire, it would utterly ruin their ability to evacuate. The County acknowledges the comment and notes it expresses the opinions of the commentator, and does not raise an issue related to the adequacy of any specific section or analysis of the Draft EIR. An Evacuation Plan was prepared and included in the Draft EIR as Appendix N-2. Refer to Topical Response HAZ-1. The County will include the comment as part of the Final EIR for review and consideration by the decision-makers prior to a final decision on the project. No further response is required or necessary.
- I-204-2 The comment states that traffic is already horrific and adding 2,135 homes would make it dangerous and ruin property values. The comment expresses the opinions of the commentator, and does not raise an issue related to the adequacy of any specific section or analysis of the Draft EIR. Potential traffic impacts were extensively analyzed in the Draft EIR at Section 2.13 Transportation and Traffic. The County will include the comment as part of the Final EIR for review and consideration by the decision-makers prior to a final decision on the project. No further response is required or necessary.
- I-204-3 The comment states that we do not need new homes, the General Plan was adopted for a reason, and that new homes in in San Marcos and Escondido have been sitting and not selling. The County acknowledges the comment and notes it expresses the opinions of the commentator, and does not raise an issue related to the adequacy of any specific section or analysis of the Draft EIR. Refer to Topical Response LU-1. The County will include the comment as part of the Final EIR for review and consideration by the decision-makers prior to a final decision on the project. No further response is required or necessary.
