

King Ranch House

Built in 1928 by the Arthur C. Wright Company, the King Ranch House of Escondido is a California Western Agricultural Ranch style house. It was built for Edwin C. King after he had retired with high honors as a Hollywood silent movie producer.