Definitions and Additional Information

² Phase I environmental assessment is defined in Section 78095 of the Health and Safety Code.

- If a recognized environmental condition is found, the development proponent shall complete a preliminary endangerment assessment, as defined in Section 78095 of the Health and Safety Code, prepared by an environmental assessor to determine the existence of any release of a hazardous substance on the site and to determine the potential for exposure of future occupants to significant health hazards from any nearby property or activity.
- If a release of a hazardous substance is found to exist on the site, the release shall be removed or any effects of the release shall be mitigated to levels required by current federal and state statutory and regulatory standards before the local government issues a certificate of occupancy.
- If a potential for exposure to significant hazards from surrounding properties or activities is found to exist, the effects of the potential exposure shall be mitigated to levels required by current federal and state statutory and regulatory standards before the local government issues a certificate of occupancy.

⁵ Floodplains: Development is prohibited in a FEMA 100-year floodplain UNLESS the development can satisfy all applicable federal qualifying criteria and either of the following are met:

- The site has been subject to a Letter of Map Revision prepared by the Federal Emergency Management Agency and issued to the local jurisdiction.
- The site meets FEMA requirements necessary to meet minimum floodplain management criteria of the National Flood Insurance Program.

⁶ Floodways: Development is prohibited in floodways UNLESS the development has received a no-rise certification in accordance with Section 60.3(d)(3) of Title 44 of the Code of Federal Regulations.

If you have any additional questions, we strongly recommend requesting an initial consultation meeting. This will afford you the opportunity to sit down with a planner and discuss the “ins and outs” of your project and receive general information of the feasibility of the project right up front before you make any major investment in time and money. The Planner will provide you with some basic information and identify the initial required deposit to start the project.
