900.1 PURPOSE AND SCOPE

This policy supplements the rules that govern employment practices for the San Diego County Probation Department and that are promulgated and maintained by the Department of Human Resources.

900.2 APPLICABILITY

This policy applies to all employees involved in the recruitment and hiring process.

900.3 POLICY

In accordance with applicable federal, state and local law, the San Diego County Probation Department provides equal opportunities for applicants and employees, regardless of race, gender expression, age, pregnancy, religion, creed, color, national origin, ancestry, physical or mental handicap, genetic information, veteran status, marital status, sex or any other protected class or status. The Department does not show partiality or grant any special status to any applicant, employee or group of employees unless otherwise required by law.

The Department will recruit and hire only those individuals who demonstrate a commitment to service and who possess the traits and characteristics that reflect personal integrity and high ethical standards.

900.4 RECRUITMENT

Probation Department Human Resource staff employ a comprehensive recruitment and selection strategy to recruit and select employees from a qualified and diverse pool of candidates.

The strategy includes:

- (a) Identification of racially and culturally diverse target markets
- (b) Use of marketing strategies to target diverse applicant pools
- (c) Expanded use of technology and maintenance of a strong Internet presence. This may include an interactive department website and the use of department-managed social networking sites, if resources permit
- (d) Expanded outreach through partnerships with media, community groups, citizen academies, local colleges, universities and the military
- (e) Coordination with the Department of Human Resources

The Department avoids advertising, recruiting and screening practices that tend to stereotype, focus on homogeneous applicant pools or screen applicants in a discriminatory manner.

The Department strives to facilitate and expedite the screening and testing process, and periodically informs each candidate of his/her status in the recruiting process
